ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

BY THE NUMBERS

136,320 TOTAL SQUARE FEET • 33 ACRES • 3 PRACTICE FIELDS • 3,300 SQUARE FOOT AUDITORIUM • 5,000 SQUARE FOOT LOCKER ROOM
7,900 SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM • 3,500 SQUARE FOOT DINING ROOM • 4,600 SQUARE FOOT MEDIA WORK ROOM & STUDIO

They grace the Bay area skyline as twin monuments to the power and passion of professional football: Raymond James Stadium, "The Crown Jewel of the NFL," and its partner in excellence, One Buccaneer Place, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers training facility.

Upon its opening in 2006, the Buccaneers' home was touted as the standard by which all future sports facilities would be measured, and it continues to awe visitors today. No effort was spared in the creation of the expansive complex, which is equipped with every modern amenity and the latest tools of the profession.

The team headquarters is a combination of function, style and space - much, much more space than the Buccaneers had previously enjoyed prior to the organization's move. The facility encompasses 136,320 square feet covering 33 acres and includes three meticulous practice fields behind the main buildings.

The facility raises the bar in every category of team preparation, from its massive locker room to the strength and conditioning center. Add in the team auditorium, media workroom and studio, a remarkably well-equipped team dining room and countless other features and you have one of the top team headquarters in the league.

"This facility gives our players, coaches and staff an unparalleled environment in which to work," said Buccaneers Co-Chairman Joel Glazer.

The signature of One Buccaneer Place is its spectacular entrance, which is adorned with the world's largest football. The sleek steel-and-glass construct is five stories tall, point to point, and angles against the main building as if it were on a tee, ready to start the game.

The two-story main building stretches away to both sides of the football centerpiece, fronted by appealing walls of glass that reflect notable features of Raymond James Stadium. Inside, the building is state-of-the-art in every way, from the rehabilitation pools in the training room to fully-integrated video equipment in every meeting room and coach's office. It is, simply, the ideal place to build a championship football team.

When Malcolm Glazer triumphantly hoisted the Lombardi Trophy on January 26, 2003, after his Tampa Bay Buccaneers emphatically defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII, his celebratory smile signified to a world-wide audience that the Buccaneers had indeed arrived.

That world championship – the franchise's first in its then 27-year history – marked the fulfillment of a vow by Glazer and his family to not only restore the long-lost success of Tampa's much-beloved franchise, but to in fact, surpass all previous standards by capturing the team's first Super Bowl Championship.

Glazer and the Buccaneers helped wipe away years of futility experienced by the franchise, its players and their fans in fulfilling that promise. The club continues to be one of the most successful in the league under his leadership. A dynamic business leader, Glazer has, through his dedication and diligence, helped mold the Buccaneers into a model franchise, one respected league-wide and one other sports franchises endeavor to emulate.

Since being purchased by Glazer on January 16, 1995, the Buccaneers franchise has experienced a dramatic upswing in its fortunes, winning 131 regular season games, earning seven playoff berths and capturing its first Super Bowl championship. In 2005, the team notched its 100th overall victory with the Glazers at the helm. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers had won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting just a .300 winning percentage.

Under Glazer's watch, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for fourth-most in the NFL. Prior to Glazer's tenure, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in 19 years, from 1976-1994. In addition, Tampa Bay has reached the playoffs six times since 1999.

Tampa Bay also eclipsed the club record for wins in a regular season with 12 in 2002. In fact, the top five single-season win totals in club history (12 in 2002, 11 in 2005, 11 in 1999, 10 in 2010, 10 in 2000 and 10 in 1997) have all come under Glazer's stewardship, and Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to play in the postseason each year from 1999 to 2002. The 2007 campaign saw the Buccaneers claim their third NFC South Division title in six years, the sixth division crown in franchise history. The three titles are the most for any team in the division since its inception in 2002.

In January of 2009, Glazer and his family made the bold decision to hire Raheem Morris, one of the league's best young talents, as head coach of the Buccaneers. Morris became the youngest head coach in the National Football League upon his appointment. In addition, the family continued to upgrade their Tampa Bay's front office by naming longtime Director of Pro Personnel Mark Dominik as the fourth general manager in club history. With Dominik and Morris in place, the Buccaneers began a rebuilding process, starting with drafting franchise quarterback Josh Freeman in 2009, followed by a highly regarded 2010 draft class that included such players as defensive tackles Gerald McCoy and Brian Price, wide receivers Arrelious Benn and Mike Williams, cornerback Myron Lewis and safety Cody Grimm.

The rebuilding began to pay off in the 2010 season, where the Buccaneers, the league's youngest team, finished with a 10-6 record, just missing the playoffs.

The Buccaneers have a 118-106 record since the start of the 1997 season. The dominating Buccaneers defense ranked in the NFL's Top 10 for nine consecutive years from 1997-2005, then the longest streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak in the NFL since 1970. Tampa Bay also ranked second in the NFL in total defense in 2007 and ninth in 2008.

"Outside of the X's and O's, Mr. Glazer is why we're here," said former Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott. "He came in and built the franchise up, allowed us to get some players in here that cared about winning. It has to start from the owner if you're going to get anywhere and be competitive in this league."

The drive to the Super Bowl title began when Glazer hired Jon Gruden as the Buccaneers' seventh head coach in club history on February 18, 2002. Gruden, then one of the rising coaching stars in the National Football League, became the youngest head coach in league history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first veteran head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

With his first Super Bowl title in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training center, promising a "world-class facility." The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

The spectacular and innovative facility, which is located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, includes a breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall. One Buccaneer

Place, as it is called, provides the ideal training environment to continue Tampa Bay's winning tradition.

"Just like our stadium, our new training facility and administrative offices are the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility would be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility was finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. We then took that information, presented it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

Known among his league peers as an innovative thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field. That success resulted in a vast and enthusiastic following that has been unmatched in franchise history.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives, and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's Raymond James Stadium, which has been dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. Since it opened in 1998, the Buccaneers boast a 63-40 record at home in the regular season. In the fall of 2006, FoxSports.com named Raymond James Stadium the best in the National Football League. In addition, the stadium was rated as having the second-best natural grass turf in the League in 2010 and 2008, according to a biennial survey conducted of the league's players. The home of the Buccaneers has also ranked first in the four previous surveys — 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004 and 2006 — since RJ5 opened in 1998.

Glazer has devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly increasing fan activities at Buccaneer home games, through the expansion of the club's community relations and special events departments. His mandate to enhance the team's visibility in the community was reflected through increased appearances by Buccaneer players, coaches, cheerleaders and front office officials in recent years.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his tenure on the NFL's Finance Committee. He has also played a major role in Tampa becoming a host for the Super Bowl on several occasions. In May 2005, the Bay Area was awarded Super Bowl XLIII, marking the second time during Glazer's ownership the area welcomed the world's most spectacular event. Glazer played a significant role in helping to land each of the Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall. One very prominent example of the Glazer Family's impact in Tampa Bay in 2009 was the hosting of Super Bowl XLIII at Raymond James Stadium on February 1, 2009.

During the 1999 offseason, Glazer launched the much-anticipated Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the Tampa Bay community. In its 12 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. The Foundation gifted $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum—The Glazer Children's Museum—in downtown Tampa, which opened on September 25, 2010. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in June 2011.

"The Glazers, first and foremost, are a close family that is very devoted to family and family values. They are also, quite obviously, smart business managers and very successful in multiple arenas. They are engaging and fun to be around, and they give their time to league committees and issues that have helped us be a better league.

The Glazer family transformed the franchise after acquiring it in 1995. They have rebuilt it, given it a new look and created an entirely new and positive image. They put together an exciting winning team, including the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance and victory during the 2002 season when the Bucs beat the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Bucs have been in the playoffs seven times under the Glazers, won four division titles, and had five 10-win seasons.

They also have ensured that the entire Bucs organization plays a strong role in serving the community. The Glazers lead a model program and have produced a winning franchise on and off-the-field. The Glazers also provided tremendous leadership in the building of an outstanding new stadium and a first-class team facility. They have been very instrumental in bringing multiple Super Bowls to the Tampa Bay community, including last year's great Steelers-Cardinals game."

— NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL ON THE GLAZER FAMILY

The Glazer Family Foundation continues to support a wide variety of community programs throughout the Tampa Bay area. The Foundation has donated grant money to more than 145 non-profit organizations, provided more than two million Buccaneer bookmarks to public libraries throughout seven Bay area counties and supplied 15,500 backpacks to more than 50 organizations for its back-to-school program. The Foundation has also played a crucial role in the continued development of two local NFL Y.E.T. Centers, recently supplying the funding for the newly constructed Glazer Family Fields at Jackson Heights and Mort Park. Tampa Bay's two Y.E.T. Centers make it the first Super Bowl host city to house more than one of the NFL-affiliated youth development facilities. The Foundation's signature program is the one Glazer is most proud of: "Cheering You On!" which has distributed more than 325,000 teddy bears to hospitalized children throughout central Florida.

In 2009, the Glazer Family Foundation announced a new initiative to enhance the health and education of children throughout Central Florida: the Vision Mobile. The Vision Mobile is an extension of the Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program, a program to provide local schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified. Malcolm Glazer benefited from vision services as a student, and as a result he adopted the Vision Program in 2006 to ensure that local youth received vision screening support. From 2006-2009, the Foundation annually donated screening equipment to two county school systems within the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' market: Hillsborough and Pinellas (2006), Pasco and Sarasota (2007), Orange and Osceola (2008) and Manatee and Polk (2009). The Vision Mobile provides the next step in vision services to not only detect, but correct students' ability to see, providing comprehensive vision exams and prescription glasses to children at no charge. Throughout 2010, the Vision Mobile provided eye examinations to 1,500 disadvantaged children in Central Florida.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have also included the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur sports activities. Glazer has committed $2 million dollars to the Commission.

In 2005, Glazer purchased the world's most popular and valuable sports team, Manchester United. The club has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Born in Rochester, New York as one of seven children, Glazer took over the family watch-parts business at age 15 following the death of his father. A successful entrepreneur, Glazer first expanded the company, then continued his foray into the professional world, investing in other businesses. Glazer owns, has owned or has been the largest shareholder of a diverse portfolio of international holdings and public companies, including: First Allied, Zapata Corporation, Houlihan's Restaurant Chain, Harley Davidson, Formica, Tonka, Specialty Equipment and Omega Protein.

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Glazer and his wife, Linda, have six children and 14 grandchildren.

Co-Chairman of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Bryan Glazer—entering his 17th year with the team in 2011—has helped revitalize the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League and has become a community leader in the Bay area, recognized for his tremendous community work.

Along with brothers Edward and Joel, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the entire franchise, including financial operations, marketing and communications.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have posted a winning record, with 131 regular season wins and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club history. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for fourth-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Glazer and his entire family were on hand as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay has also claimed NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

In January of 2009, Glazer and his family made the bold decision to hire Raheem Morris, one of the league's best young talents, as head coach of the Buccaneers. Morris became the youngest head coach in the National Football League upon his appointment.

In addition, the family continued to upgrade Tampa Bay's front office by naming long-time Director of Pro Personnel Mark Dominik as the fourth general manager in club history. With Dominik and Morris in place, the Buccaneers began a rebuilding process, starting with drafting franchise quarterback Josh Freeman in 2009, which was followed by a highly-regarded 2010 draft class that included such players as defensive tackles Gerald McCoy and Brian Price, wide receivers Arrelious Benn and Mike Williams, and the acquisition of undrafted rookie free agent LeGarrette Blount.

The rebuilding began to pay off in the 2010 season, where the Buccaneers, the league's youngest team, finished with a 10-6 record, just missing the playoffs.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

His commitment to the organization and the local community culminated with the club's effort in constructing Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in January 2001 and played host to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to the Bay area, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the Tampa Bay community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. Glazer continues his commitment to bringing future Super Bowls to the area.

Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors during the construction of Raymond James Stadium to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers have notched an impressive 63-40 record in the regular season.

Glazer also worked diligently on the construction of One Buccaneer Place, the team's training facility and business operations center. The 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art headquarters, located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, is one of the finest in the National Football League. The signature feature of the new facility is its breathtaking entrance, which includes the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall. The facility opened to rave reviews in August of 2006.

His innovative approach to business and penchant for "thinking outside the box" has resulted in the creation of the club's Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' sponsors with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer also worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles in the development of the Buccaneers' new logo in 1996-97. The new design, which was based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, marked the first significant change to the team logo and uniform in franchise history. Upon its successful unveiling on April 9, 1997, the logo garnered rave reviews from such media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, The New York Times and The Washington Post. Perhaps the ultimate testament to the effectiveness of the logo, which consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind-swept battle flag, is that it became – and remains – wildly popular among Buccaneers fans. Put simply, it exemplifies the brand of football played in Tampa Bay.

In addition to his business achievements, Glazer also has been involved in a number of vital football-related efforts directly related to the on-the-field success experienced by the Buccaneers, certainly including, but not limited to, the team's first Super Bowl championship.

A native of Rochester, New York, the 46-year-old Glazer serves on the NFL's Digital Media Committee, as appointed by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, and he makes regular community and charitable appearances on behalf of the Glazer Family Foundation, which in June 2011 was honored as Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Tampa Bay Sports Commission Sneaker Soiree. Foundation initiatives such as "Cheering You On!," "Vision Program" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of those in which he takes great pride. Most recently, the Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum in downtown Tampa, which opened on September 25, 2010 and is named the Glazer Children's Museum. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of the Glazer Children's Museum, Glazer is also on the Board of Directors Advisory Council for Ronald McDonald House. In spring of 2011, he served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball charity event.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

JOEL GLAZER CO-CHAIRMAN

The fast-paced and ultra-competitive environment that characterizes the National Football League is a perfect match for Joel Glazer's business acumen. These attributes have proven integral to the Buccaneers' transformation into one of the most successful franchises in the league.

Now in his 17th season with the Buccaneers, Co-Chairman Joel Glazer, along with his brothers, Bryan and Edward, oversees the day-to-day operations of the franchise, ensuring the club achieves and maintains the highest levels of success in all aspects.

His leadership has been more than validated, as evidenced by the Buccaneers' seven playoff berths and first NFL title – all of which have come under Glazer ownership. That unprecedented level of success paints a stark contrast to the meager .300 winning percentage posted by the team prior to its purchase by the Glazer family.

As Co-Chairman, Glazer's keen insight and tireless dedication continue to enhance the reputation of the Buccaneers. Glazer has passionately spearheaded a number of vital efforts throughout the years that have not only helped shape the club into a contender, but a model NFL franchise as well.

Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995: build a franchise from the ground-up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the NFL. That vision was realized when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego on January 26, 2003. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also claimed the NFC South title in 2005 and 2007.

In January of 2009, Glazer and his family made the bold decision to hire Raheem Morris, one of the league's most promising young talents. Morris became the youngest head coach in the National Football League upon his appointment on January 17, 2009. In addition, the family continued to upgrade off the field by naming long-time Director of Pro Personnel Mark Dominik as the fourth general manager in club history.

During the 2002 offseason, Joel worked with brothers, Bryan and Edward, in orchestrating the now-famous "midnight deal" with Al Davis that brought Jon Gruden to Tampa. Glazer and his family showed their commitment to building a championship team for the Tampa Bay community by hiring Gruden, who became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Gruden was also the first veteran head coach in the history of the NFL to lead his team to the Super Bowl in his first season with a new team.

Glazer, promising a "world-class facility," led the design for the current cornerstone of the franchise, a 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art team headquarters which opened to rave reviews in August 2006. Located across the street from Raymond James Stadium, One Buccaneer Place is one of the finest training facilities in the National Football League. The signature of the site is its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football, towering nearly five stories tall.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers can boast a winning record with 131 regular-season wins and five playoff wins, easily the most successful stretch in club annals. Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time in 2002, the only team in the league to head to the postseason all four years from 1999-2002. In addition, the Buccaneers' seven playoff appearances since 1997 are tied for fourth-most in the NFL over that span. Prior to Glazer's arrival, the franchise advanced to the postseason just three times in the previous 19 years, from 1976-1994.

Following the purchase of the team in 1995, Glazer directed his attention on vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office and recruiting talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Joel worked tirelessly alongside Bryan to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drew from their experiences as fans, and ultimately shaped every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never seen before in modern stadiums, including the 24'x92' BucVision video boards now emulated at all new stadiums. However, the true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship. With the pieces of the puzzle in place, as well as a state-of-the art new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise: a new look. Glazer, along with Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign and Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting them into the top echelon of NFL sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner.

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing efforts that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate Pewter Partners sponsorship program, Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners' Meetings. He played an integral role at the 2005 Spring Meetings to help Tampa Bay land the 2009 Super Bowl. The Bay area won the bid for Super Bowl XLIII, marking the fourth Super Bowl for Tampa Bay.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which runs initiatives such as "Cheering You On!," "Vision Program" and "Ticket Rewards." The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of a new children's museum, the Glazer Children's Museum, in downtown Tampa, which opened September 25, 2010. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, The Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in June 2011. In addition to his community efforts, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee. Glazer currently sits on the NFL International, NFL Finance and NFL Stadium committees.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador award was presented to the Glazer family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall. One very prominent example of the Glazer family's impact in Tampa Bay was the hosting of Super Bowl XLIII at Raymond James Stadium on February 1, 2009.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured four Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011) as well as the 2008 Champions League title. He was recently named as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by the Telegraph.

Glazer, 44, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native is married to his wife, Angela, and has two children.

Entering his 17th season with Tampa Bay in 2011, Co-Chairman Edward Glazer oversees many aspects of the team's day-to-day business operations.

Recognizing that the fans are of the utmost importance to his team's success, Glazer sets the tone for Tampa Bay's commitment to its fans. Under his direction, the Buccaneers have added a full array of new ticket options for fans, such as a $35 adult ticket and a $17.50 youth ticket. The team also eliminated seat deposits and initiated a new 10-month payment plan on season tickets, giving more people than ever the ability to become season ticket holders. Glazer scrutinizes every detail of the business operations at One Buccaneer Place to ensure that fans are getting the best possible Buccaneers experience and value.

Glazer has dedicated himself to forward-thinking initiatives—whether it's improvements off the field, such as bolstering the team website and social media capabilities, or enhancing the game day experience for fans, down to the most critical details.

The team's official website, Buccaneers.com, is also a passion project for Glazer. He works closely with the NFL and Buccaneers staff members to oversee the development, design and content of the site, which was redone in the summer of 2010. The Buccaneers have also established a strong social media presence thanks to Glazer, allowing fans unique access through the team's official Facebook page (www.facebook.com/tampabaybuccaneers) and Twitter account (@TB Buccaneers). 2011 will also see the release of the Buccaneers' first apps for cell phones and the Apple iPad.

In addition to his passion for innovation, Glazer also treasures the Buccaneers' past. He spearheaded a massive project to digitally archive the entire photographic history of the franchise, which included the organization, captioning, rating and uploading of more than 100,000 images documenting the first 35 seasons.

In 2009, he conducted painstaking research in order to faithfully replicate the team's 1976 uniform as Tampa Bay decided to pay tribute to the original designs that launched the franchise. Digging through historical archives and enlisting the help of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Glazer worked out every detail of the uniform's design from head to toe. The Buccaneers were re-adorned in Florida Orange for their first ever Throwback Game on October 8, 2009, in a win over Green Bay, and the annual event became an instant fan favorite.

In January of 2009, Glazer and his brothers made the bold decision to hire Raheem Morris, The NFL's youngest head coach. They then proceeded to promote long-time Director of Pro Personnel Mark Dominik as the fourth general manager in club history. With Dominik and Morris in place, the Buccaneers began a rebuilding process, which started by trading up in the 2009 draft to select franchise quarterback Josh Freeman.

The rebuilding continued in 2010 with the drafting of such players as defensive tackle Gerald McCoy and wide receiver Mike Williams, in addition to claiming undrafted rookie free agent running back LeGarrette Blount. 2011 saw another productive draft, with defensive ends Adrian Clayborn and Da'Quan Bowers and linebacker Mason Foster among the new additions to Tampa Bay's roster.

The rebuilding that began in 2009 quickly began to bloom in the 2010 season, where the Buccaneers—the league's youngest team—finished with a 10-6 record, just missing the playoffs and earning national respect as a team on the rise.

Glazer and his brothers, Joel and Bryan, worked closely on the design and construction of the team's new headquarters, built in 2006. One Buccaneer Place, a state-of-the-art complex sets the standard for team operation centers today and provides Tampa Bay with a word-class place to call home as the team moves forward.

In addition to his attention to the Buccaneers, Glazer is also heavily involved in charitable endeavors. He is co-president of the Glazer Family Foundation and helps oversee Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On!," which provides every child admitted to any of eight Bay area hospitals with a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book. To date this program has given away hundreds of thousands of bears. In its 13 years of existence, the Foundation has donated millions in programs, tickets, grants and in-kind contributions. In September of 2010, the Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa. This was made possible with a $5 million gift toward the construction of the facility, which opened to rave reviews. For its wide-reaching efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree in June 2011.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The award was presented to the Glazer family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area as well as their impact on the community overall, one very prominent example of which is the family's efforts to attract Super Bowls to Raymond James Stadium, including Super Bowls XLIII and XXXV.

Glazer and his wife, Shari, are committed to providing aid and assistance in the community, supporting many causes, including the Zimmer Children's Museum, the Jewish Federation, UCLA Jonsson Cancer Center Foundation, Cedars-Sinai Hospital, the Fulfillment Fund and the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital.

Glazer serves on the board of the family-owned Manchester United Soccer Club, the world's most popular team with over 333 million fans worldwide. Manchester United has seen great success since the Glazer family purchased the team in 2005. The club has won the Premier League title in four of the six seasons since the purchase (2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2010-11) and has also been in three Champions league final matches, taking home the 2008 Champions League title. Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of First Allied Corporation, the family's holding company for real estate investments in more than 20 states.

Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and is a proud alum of Ithaca College, which is scheduled to open the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena in fall 2011.

Darcie Glazer Kasewitz, Co-President of the Glazer Family Foundation, has ensured that the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' value to the community extends well beyond the playing field. She is a key asset in developing the Foundation's forward-thinking community efforts.

Established in 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes focusing on children and families in the Central Florida region. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated millions of dollars in support of this cause.

The Glazer Family Foundation's Vision Program was an initiative starting in 2006 to provide schoolchildren with an opportunity to have vision problems identified in school at an early age. To date, the Foundation has donated Vision Screening Equipment to eight counties in Central Florida. The Vision Mobile, spearheaded by Kasewitz in 2009, provides the final step in vision services to correct these students' inability to see clearly by providing free eye exams and prescription eyeglasses to children at Title One schools. The Vision Mobile visits the schools and provides eye examinations to thousands of disadvantaged children.

Kasewitz also attends the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp each year, where she meets with local charities and community groups and hosts the winners of the Summer Grant program. Since 1999, the Glazer Family Foundation has donated more than $550,000 in grants to organizations throughout Central Florida. Twice each year, Kasewitz presents grants to non-profit organizations focused on the health, safety, recreation and education of disadvantaged youth. Grant recipients attend a presentation and luncheon at the Buccaneers' training facility where they also participate in a roundtable discussion to share ways the non-profit groups can work together to strengthen the community.

To start every home Tampa Bay Buccaneers game, Kasewitz meets with children from local community groups on the field prior to kickoff as part of the Foundation's "Gameday For Kids" program. To date, the Foundation has hosted more than 11,000 youth at Raymond James Stadium, who come from organizations throughout the Bay area. Participating kids are rewarded for academic achievement and positive behavior with free game tickets, food vouchers and car flags. The youth receive this privilege based on achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by community agencies.

With a lead gift, the Glazer Family Foundation is proud to have the new world class Glazer Children's Museum in Tampa, Florida as part of their ongoing dedication to children and families. A new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders, the Children's Museum opened on September 25th, 2010 to rave reviews. This one-of-a-kind museum instantly became the featured destination for children and families in Tampa Bay, providing 53,000-square feet of space for safe and playful learning.

On the football side, Kasewitz has used her creative expertise to help shape the Buccaneers' world-class facilities. Kasewitz set out to design a football stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort. She visited different stadiums and facilities throughout the NFL and ultimately shaped every detail of the interior of Raymond James Stadium. She also designed and implemented expansive club levels, luxury suites and the Lower Galley restaurant. A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "Crown Jewel of the NFL."

Tampa Bay's training facility, which opened to high praise from across the National Football League in August 2006, is a technological marvel and sets a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL. Kasewitz oversaw the entire interior design process for the team's 136,320 square-foot state-of-the-art training facility, which encompasses the daily functions for all of the Buccaneers' football and business operations.

One of the signatures of the training facility is the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Museum, which was designed and produced by Kasewitz. The museum brings the Buccaneers' history to life, including in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise. Featured displays explore the creation of the team's uniform and logo, a description of Buccaneers head coaches since the team's inception in 1976, and the organization's move to Raymond James Stadium and One Buccaneer Place. Additional exhibits explain the history of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, the establishment of the Glazer Family Foundation, and the continual efforts by Buccaneers players to make an impact in the community. Included are features dedicated to the Buccaneers' Super Bowl victory, including special exhibits showcasing the Lombardi Trophy and Super Bowl ring earned in Super Bowl XXXVII.

The lobby also includes the spectacular Moment of Victory sculpture exhibit, which depicts the moment when the Buccaneers were assured of their first World Championship and commemorates Tampa Bay's victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Kasewitz not only came up with the concept for the sculptures, but oversaw the design and creation of this one-of-a-kind exhibit.

In January 2011, Kasewitz launched the new Glazer Family Foundation's web site, GlazerFamilyFoundation.org, providing site visitors with a more forward-thinking, engaging tool to better assist community agencies. The site's new structure and design, overseen from start to finish by Kasewitz, presents faster, enhanced devices to better direct community members to Foundation programs, news and events. Its appealing design also sets it apart as a fun, welcoming destination for charitable groups, children and families alike.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Glazer Family Foundation, she has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Palm Beach. Kasewitz also serves on the Board of Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured four titles since the Glazer family took over the club: three consecutive Premier League titles (2007, 2008 and 2009), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kasewitz graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990. She also earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993. She is also a member of the New York State Bar Association.

BUC-PACKS FOR BACK-TO-SCHOOL

The Buc-Packs for Back-to-School program provides Buccaneers backpacks filled with school supplies to children throughout Central Florida. In 2010, children from 48 community groups received a total of 3,300 backpacks during the team's training camp at One Buccaneer Place. To date, almost 20,000 bags have been given away to charities throughout the region.

CHEERING YOU ON!

The Cheering You On! program provides teddy bears to each child admitted into eight hospitals throughout Central Florida, lifting patients' spirits and making their stay more cheerful. To date, the Foundation has donated almost 400,000 Buccaneers teddy bears to young patients.

COLLECTION DRIVES

During the 2010 season, the Glazer Family Foundation teamed up with Buccaneers fans from the Bay area to support charitable causes through gameday collection drives. Before five different home games, fans donated a variety of items to help those in need.

- Military Supply Drive to benefit Support Our Troops and U.S. armed forces overseas
- School Supply Drive to benefit Teaching Tools for Hillsborough Schools
- "Sack Hunger" Drive to benefit Feeding America Tampa Bay, Metropolitan Ministries, Somebody Cares Tampa Bay, The St. Petersburg Free Clinic
- Toys for Tots Drive to benefit underprivileged children through the Toys for Tots program
- Pet Supply Drive to benefit the Humane Societies of Hillsborough and Pinellas

ENTERPRISE VILLAGE

The Foundation is the official sponsor of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers store in Enterprise Village, providing financial support and merchandise for the program. Enterprise Village has hosted more than 300,000 students from public and private schools who spend the day learning about the free enterprise system in the hands-on, interactive marketplace.

GAMEDAY FOR KIDS

At each home game, the Foundation hosts 100 deserving youth through the Gameday for Kids program. More than 11,000 children representing over 100 organizations from the Bay area have been rewarded with free tickets, food and Buccaneers flags for achieving goals of incentive programs implemented by their community agencies.

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

GRANT PROGRAM

The Glazer Family Foundation awards grants twice a year to local nonprofits to help fund programs that focus on the welfare of underserved youth and families. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated more than $500,000 in grants to Central Florida charities.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SPREE

Since 2000, the Foundation has hosted an annual event to provide a happy holiday season for needy children. In recent years, the popular holiday shopping spree has given hundreds of underserved children the opportunity to select clothing, toys and personal items thanks to the help of Buccaneers staff, Cheerleaders, Captain Fear and the Women's Organization.

MAKE READING YOUR GOAL

The Foundation encourages every child to "Make Reading Your Goal" by providing area libraries with Buccaneers bookmarks. Children receive a free bookmark when they check out a book from their local public library. To date, more than two million Buccaneers bookmarks have been distributed to libraries throughout Central Florida.

TAMPA BAY SPORTS COMMISSION

The Glazer Family Foundation has donated almost $1 million to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission for its support of amateur athletic activities in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The Sports Commission uses the funds to support annual events, including all-star football, soccer and basketball games for Bay area students, as well as its local High School Football Combine, which helps high school athletes earn college scholarships.

VISION PROGRAM

In 2009, the vision program was enhanced with the introduction of the Glazer Family Foundation Vision Mobile. That initiative now continues in its second year of providing the next step in vision services: Not only detecting issues with students' ability to see, but correcting them. Following the initial school screenings, students from Title 1 schools who are recommended for additional testing will have it performed on the Vision Mobile, which travels throughout eight counties (Hillsborough, Manatee, Orange, Osceola, Pasco, Polk, Pinellas and Sarasota) to provide on-site service. Certified doctors provide comprehensive vision exams and prescription glasses to children at no charge. It is the Foundation's goal to not only provide these services to children who cannot see clearly, but to those who would not otherwise have access to the exams or be able to afford new glasses. Throughout 2010, the Vision Mobile is providing eye examinations and glasses to 1,500 disadvantaged children in Central Florida.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers remained champions in the community throughout 2010. Thanks to the efforts of current and former players, coaches, front office staff and their families, the Buccaneers led the way in ensuring Central Florida's underserved populations continued to develop into a more positive, structured community.

Throughout the year, nearly 1,000 nonprofit organizations benefitted from the charitable endeavors of the Buccaneers. Whether through team donations, engaging community initiatives, NFL outreach programs, or one of the hundreds of appearances for which players and coaches volunteered their time, team members ensured the Buccaneers continued their strong tradition of giving back.

BUCCANEERS DAY OF GIVING

The Buccaneers surprised 30 families with holiday presents, Publix and Hess gift cards, game tickets, a shopping spree and more during the team's fourth annual Day of Giving. The tradition has become a popular event where players, cheerleaders and Captain Fear surprise underprivileged families with gifts during the holiday season.

FATHER'S DAY KITCHEN COACHING

In honor of Father's Day, the Buccaneers provided "Kitchen Coaching" for five families from the Jack & Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation. The event offered a memorable and rewarding experience for families with a mother battling late stage, limited life expectancy cancer.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATION

In 2010, the Buccaneers and Publix hosted the third annual Halloween Celebration for over 800 disadvantaged youth. Children joined the Buccaneers' rookie class, cheerleaders and Captain Fear for a night of fun and games at the Lowry Park Zoo, where they took part in haunted houses, arts and crafts, a costume contest, rides and more.

LACE IT UP FOR KIDS

In 2010, the Buccaneers helped over 500 local youth kick off the school year on the right foot with the second annual Lace It Up For Kids shoe giveaway. Buccaneers players, cheerleaders and Captain Fear welcomed the children to training camp where they selected brand new shoes purchased by the Buccaneers. In total, more than 1,000 children have received new shoes through the program.

MOTHER'S DAY MAKEOVERS

Buccaneers gave away a once-in-a-lifetime experience to five mothers from Central Florida for the team's inaugural Mother's Day Makeovers program. In honor of Mother's Day, the team provided a day of pampering, a new wardrobe and an evening out with family members for five deserving women.

PLAY 60

The Buccaneers promoted the Play 60 initiative of being active for at least 60 minutes a day through a variety of school visits, team events and NFL programs. The team also dedicated the first Buccaneers Play 60 Zone at LaVoy Exceptional Center in Tampa, which included a new court cover and athletic equipment to support students with a wide range of developmental disabilities.

ROAD TO SUCCESS

Head Coach Raheem Morris, Buccaneers players and Captain Fear surprised 21-year-old Kiara Walker with a new car through the Buccaneers' inaugural Road to Success initiative. Walker, who overcame significant challenges in her life and is dedicated to empowering others, was selected out of 180 applicants who were nominated for the program.

ROOKIE CLUB

The Buccaneers Rookie Club was established in 2001 as a way to help the rookie class learn about each other and their new community through charitable outreach. The Rookie Club's annual efforts include hosting a bowling outing for foster kids, volunteering at Metropolitan Ministries, visiting patients at All Children's Hospital, and singing holiday carols for residents at a local retirement home.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

The Buccaneers Student Ambassadors (formerly Student Advisory Board) is a team of 40 motivated high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who create Buccaneers spirit in their schools and work as customer service representatives for Buccaneers home games. During their one-year terms, students have the opportunity to tour the team's training facility, learn from important guest speakers at monthly meetings and participate in Buccaneers community events.

TICKET PROGRAMS

At every Buccaneers home game, players, Head Coach Raheem Morris, and General Manager Mark Dominik host a number of charitable groups and school children. These special guests are part of the Buccaneers' ticket programs, which provide participants with front-row end-zone seats, custom t-shirts, food vouchers and the opportunity to be featured as a group on BucVision during the game.

TURKEY TIME WITH THE O-LINE

For the past four years, the Buccaneers' offensive line and Publix Supermarkets have teamed up to provide Thanksgiving meals for less fortunate families through the annual Turkey Time with the O-Line. Sponsored by the team's offensive line, the event transforms the Buccaneers' facility into a drive-up service where more than 2,250 families have received a full turkey dinner in time for the holidays.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

The Buccaneers Women's Organization consists of wives, fiancées and girlfriends of Buccaneers players, coaches and front-office staff members. Throughout the year, the Women's Organization participates in charitable functions and community service projects in the Bay area. The group's 2010 outreach efforts included sorting food at Metropolitan Ministries, participating in a Holiday Shopping Spree for underprivileged youth, and visiting the Pace Center for Girls to assist young females in need of support.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

Throughout 2010, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers continued their commitment to breast cancer awareness and supporting the NFL's "A Crucial Catch" campaign. The team incorporated many awareness elements into its Breast Cancer Awareness game, such as distributing pink ribbons to fans as they entered the stadium, having breast cancer survivors lead the team onto the field during pre-game introductions, and recognizing two cancer survivors as the team's honorary captains. Buccaneers cheerleaders also lined the field in pink uniforms while players, coaches and referees wore pink apparel, which was later auctioned off to benefit the American Cancer Society.

In conjunction with breast cancer awareness month, the Buccaneers and the NFL also donated $5,000 to Faces with Courage, a nonprofit organization that provides life-enriching experiences to underserved kids, women and families touched by cancer and/or blood disorders. Linebacker Adam Hayward championed the team's breast cancer cause, serving as the 2010 Ambassador for the Florida Suncoast Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Among Hayward's many efforts was his role as Honorary Chairman for the charity's largest fundraiser, the Florida Suncoast Race for the Cure, which raised more than $1 million in October 2010 to support breast cancer research.

BRIAN FORD

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Brian A. Ford, Jr. joined the Buccaneers in 2006 and is entering his third full season as vice president of business administration after previously serving as director of business administration. He oversees all day-to-day business operations for the organization.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

Ford served as an executive committee member for the Super Bowl Host Committee for Super bowl XLIII in 2009 and currently serves on the Board of the Ronald McDonald House, the Florida Sports Foundation and Tampa Bay & Company.

Ford, a native of Miramar, Florida, graduated from Florida State in 1989 with a B.S. in business administration. He is an avid runner and triathlete and competes in numerous events each year, including a marathon each of the past seven years and a 70.3 Half Ironman the past two years.

He and his wife, Judy, live in Tampa with their sons Brian III and Brandon. The couple is celebrating their 22nd wedding anniversary in August. Judy is an active member of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which hosts charitable functions and community service projects in Tampa Bay throughout the year.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers host a wide variety of youth football programs throughout the year, including the Buccaneers' Play 60 Challenge, Gatorade Junior Training Camp and the NFL Punt, Pass and Kick program. These initiatives not only help children and their families enjoy the game of football, but also serve as a resource for coaches to help promote a positive experience for youth football participants.

Through additional efforts, including the USA Football month celebration during a Buccaneers preseason game, hosting the USA Football State Forum, and creating the Buccaneers University Student-Athlete Transition Program, the team remained committed to educating children and coaches about the National Football League and enhancing the skills of youth both on and off the field.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers proudly support our nation's armed forces throughout the year. The team held its annual Military Appreciation game, which included a pregame collection drive to gather supplies for military personnel stationed overseas, U.S. Special Operations Command para-commandos parachuting into the stadium, U.S. Army Reserve soldiers leading the team onto the field, and a special Oath of Enlistment ceremony at halftime for 125 individuals being inducted into the U.S. Military Service.

The Buccaneers' military appreciation efforts also extend well beyond the football field. Among the team's many initiatives were visits to James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital in Tampa to spend time with servicemen and women recovering from injury and illness, and a Veterans' Day Military Appreciation Rally at MacDill Air Force Base for hundreds of active duty servicemen and women stationed in Tampa.

MARK DOMINIK

GENERAL MANAGER

Mark Dominik enters his 17th year with the Buccaneers organization and his third season as general manager in 2011, after being named the fourth general manager in team history on January 17, 2009. Over the past 16 seasons, Dominik has contributed to seven playoff appearances and four division titles.

In only two seasons leading the Buccaneers' front office, Dominik has already gained a reputation as one of the league's top talent evaluators, with a keen aptitude for finding late-round gems, in addition to fully utilizing the "second draft"—bringing in rookie contributors through undrafted free agency, scouring the waiver wire and opposing teams' practice squads.

During the 2010 offseason, Dominik oversaw Tampa Bay's 2011 draft class, which included the likes of DE Adrian Clayborn, DE Da'Quan Bowers, LB Mason Foster, TE Luke Stocker and S Ahmad Black—all players to add to the Buccaneers' talented young core.

Dominik's much-lauded 2010 draft proved itself on the field during the season, where seven of the nine picks recorded at least one start. WR Mike Williams, a fourth-round selection, started all 16 games his rookie season, leading all rookie receivers in the league in receptions (65, second on the team), yards (964, first on the team), and receiving touchdowns (11, single-season team record). Williams was a finalist for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and finished second in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. On defense, seventh-round pick Cody Grimm established himself as the team's starting free safety, finishing the season with 61 tackles, two passes defended and two interceptions—one returned for a touchdown—before a late-season injury ended his rookie campaign. DT Gerald McCoy and WR Arrelious Benn also made major contributions to the team before their seasons were cut short due to injury.

In addition to the draft class, Dominik's exceptional nose for hidden talent also brought rookie C/G Ted Larsen and RB LeGarrette Blount, among others, to Tampa Bay. Larsen, originally a sixth-round by New England in the 2010 draft, started all 11 games in which he played, bolstering an offensive line that featured eight different starting lineups throughout the season. Blount, an undrafted rookie free agent acquired off waivers from Tennessee, became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to record a 1,000+-yard season when he finished with 1,007 yards, despite starting only seven games, and was nominated for the NFL's Rookie of the Week award on five occasions.

Mark Dominik greets each group from the "Dominik's Den" ticket program on the field before home games at Raymond James Stadium. The program provides a special gameday experience for military servicemen and women.

Dominik's first ever draft pick in 2009 brought quarterback Josh Freeman to Tampa Bay, where, in his first season as a starter in 2010, the Kansas State product finished the year as the sixth-ranked passer in the league while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, ranking him ninth for the best touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history.

Dominik was also a major factor in the 2009 trade for Pro Bowl TE Kellen Winslow—who went on to a record-breaking season with the Buccaneers, including single-season franchise records for a tight end in receptions (77) and receiving yards (884)—in addition to key free agent signings such as C Jeff Faine and Pro Bowl T Donald Penn.

Dominik joined the Buccaneers' staff in June 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He served in that capacity through the 1997 season, before assuming the title of pro scout in 1998 and coordinator of pro personnel in 2000. Prior to the start of the 2001 season, Dominik began the first of his eight years as Tampa Bay's Director of Pro Personnel. In 2002, Dominik helped guide the Buccaneers to their first world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII against Oakland.

As Director of Pro Personnel, his duties included overseeing the scouting, recruiting and signing efforts of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. He was also in charge of the Pro Personnel department's evaluation of players in all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League, while being responsible for the negotiation and signing of contracts for several free agents and NFL Draft signings.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Dominik joined Tampa Bay after spending a year and a half working in both the college and pro personnel departments of the Kansas City Chiefs. Dominik holds a bachelor of science degree in sports management from the University of Kansas.

A proud supporter of the United States military, Dominik is an auxiliary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4321 and sponsored and has participated in a golf tournament at MacDill Air Force Base to aid in the renovation project for Post 4321 headquarters. He has also established a close relationship with the James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital where he regularly visits wounded warriors and volunteers with their "Helping Hands" program. During the season, Dominik sponsors "Dominik's Den," a ticket program that provided a special game day experience for military servicemen and women.

Dominik is also committed to foster care and adoption awareness, having worked closely with Hillsborough Kids, Inc. while participating in National Adoption Day events. In June 2010 he also served as the spokesman for the Children's Home Society campaign "Let's Tackle This" to increase the number of foster parents in Tampa Bay.

In addition, Dominik has been an active contributor to All Pro Dad, the fatherhood program of Family First that features NFL coaches, players and alumni who speak out about the importance of fatherhood, giving men the tools they need to make a positive difference in the lives of their children and families. In April 2011, Dominik hosted the annual Buccaneers All Pro Dad Father & Kids Experience at Raymond James Stadium, providing an interactive event for family bonding.

As General Manager, Dominik has made numerous other appearances in the Tampa Bay community, including as an annual participant in the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation, for which he serves on the board of directors.

Dominik resides in Tampa with his wife, Amy, their son, Davis, and daughters, Emerson and Avery. Amy is an active member of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which hosts charitable functions and community service projects in Tampa Bay throughout the year. The Dominiks support organizations including A Woman's Place, Children's Center for the Visually Impaired (CCVI), Family First and World Vision.

With wife Holly Petraeus looking on, Commander of International Security Assistance Force & Commander of U.S. Forces Afghanistan General David Petraeus exchanges challenge coins with General Manager Mark Dominik before the Buccaneers' Military Appreciation Game on September 13, 2009 against the Dallas Cowboys.

RAHEEM MORRIS

HEAD COACH

Raheem Morris—named the eighth head coach in team history on January 17, 2009—enters his third season leading the Buccaneers in 2011.

Morris is currently in his second stint with Tampa Bay, having first joined the team's defensive coaching staff in 2002. He served on staff from 2002-05, then spent the 2006 season as Kansas State's defensive coordinator before returning to the Buccaneers to serve as the defensive backs coach from 2007-08. Morris has quickly risen through the coaching ranks during his time with Tampa Bay, serving as defensive quality control coach in 2002, defensive assistant in 2003 and assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-2005 before taking over as defensive backs coach in 2007. During his first stretch with the club, he worked closely with former Buccaneers defensive backs coach and current Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin in the development of one of the NFL's top secondaries.

Morris, the youngest head coach in the league in 2010, also directed the season's youngest team, with Tampa Bay's final 53-man roster featuring 29 players in their rookie, first or second years in the NFL. In fact, the Morris-led "Young Bucs" became the first team since the merger in 1970 to start 10+ rookies and finish the season with a winning record, as the team turned in an exciting 10-6 performance, narrowly missing a playoff berth. The seven-game swing from a 3-13 season in 2009 marked the best single-season turnaround in team history and the best turnaround in the NFL for 2010. Six of the Buccaneers' wins were on the road, including a 21-0 shutout at San Francisco in Week 11 and a 23-13 victory over NFC South rival New Orleans in Week 17 to close the season.

While Tampa Bay was beset by injuries throughout the 2010 season, with eight starters—including some of the team's most productive players—being placed on Injured Reserve, Morris' "next man up" philosophy was fully embraced by his team. Rookies and backups heeded Morris' call, filling in and stepping up whenever needed, as evidenced by the offensive line, which fielded eight different starting lineups throughout the season, but still kept QB Josh Freeman on his feet and paved the way for a 1,000-yard rushing season by rookie RB LeGarrette Blount, while also earning Madden Most Valuable Protector honors in Week 16.

In his inaugural head coaching season in 2009, Morris took over the defensive reins after the first 10 games of the season and dramatically improved the performance on that side of the ball. Prior to its 11th game, the team ranked 27th in overall defense (378.9 ypg), 32nd in rushing defense (168.9 ypg), 14th in pass defense (209.4 ypg) and 31st in scoring defense (29.4 ppg). In the final six weeks of the season under Morris' direction, the team ranked 15th in overall defense (356.0 ypg), tied for 26th in rush defense (140.3 ypg), 12th in pass defense (204.0 ypg) and most impressively, ninth in scoring defense (17.7 ppg). The Buccaneers finished the year 10th overall in pass defense, marking the sixth time in seven seasons with Morris on the staff that the Buccaneers defense ranked in the Top 10 in pass defense.

Morris led the Buccaneers to two wins in the final three contests of the 2009 campaign, including a 20-17 upset victory over the eventual Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints at the Superdome on December 27. Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter, Tampa Bay scored 20 unanswered points to win in overtime. The 17-point comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in team history, and it also marked the first time in NFL history that a team that was 10 or more games below .500 defeated a team that was 10 or more games above .500.

Morris has helped shape one of the NFL's best defenses over the past decade. Since 1996, the Buccaneers defense has produced 36 Pro Bowlers, the second-most in the NFL, and finished as the NFL's top-ranked defense twice (2002 and 2005). The past 14 seasons have also seen the Buccaneers defense rank in the Top 10 on 11 occasions and in the Top 5 eight times.

During his nine seasons in Tampa Bay, the Bucs have finished ranked in the Top 5 in the NFL in total defense five times, including No. 1 rankings in 2002 and 2005. Additionally, the defense finished as the top-ranked pass defense on three occasions (2002, 2004 and 2007) and seventh or better in seven of nine seasons with Morris on the staff. In 2002, his first season as a coach in the NFL, Morris helped guide the Buccaneers top-ranked defense as they captured the franchise's first world title in Super Bowl XXXVII.

In Morris' final season as the defensive backs coach in 2008, Tampa Bay's defense finished the year ranked fourth in the NFL against the pass. At the time, the accomplishment marked the fifth time in six seasons with Morris on the staff that the Buccaneers defensive unit ranked in the Top 5 in pass defense. After Tampa Bay fell to 19th in the NFL in pass defense in 2006, Morris led a resurgence during his return in 2007, guiding the Buccaneers pass defense to the league's top ranking en route to the NFC South division title. The Buccaneers secondary helped limit opposing quarterbacks to a 76.2 rating in 2007, ranking eighth in the NFL after previously ranking 29th in 2006.

In his lone season with Kansas State in 2006, Morris coordinated a defense that displayed improvement in several statistical categories from the previous season, including total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. He oversaw a Wildcat defense that included seven players who received conference recognition, including two first-team All-Big 12 honorees and one second-team selection.

Morris joined Tampa Bay after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as defensive backs coach at Hofstra University. He also spent time in the fall of 2001 with the New York Jets, serving a defensive minority internship.

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports and handling video breakdown and computer input and analysis. He then landed at Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season.

Morris has focused his community efforts on education and promoting the importance of academics amongst Bay area youth. In 2009, Morris started his "Be the Ultimate Character Student" (BUCS) program. The initiative is designed to teach students lessons on education and athletics as they relate to leadership, determination and character. Throughout the regular season, students from Hillsborough and Pinellas counties are recorded asking Morris' opinion on a variety of on and off-the-field topics. Morris then records video podcasts on the Monday following each home game, utilizing his own experiences during the football season to answer the questions and relate messages about perseverance, integrity, commitment and, ultimately, the importance of making the most of one's educational opportunities. The video podcasts air in middle and high schools in Hillsborough and Pinellas County School Districts, where teachers can display the podcast on the classroom monitors and work Morris' message into their day's curriculum. On the weeks during the Buccaneers' away games, schools work on their own character education curriculum, which is reinforced by Coach Morris' character-building message.

In May 2011, Morris and Buccaneers Director of Player Development Eric Vance hosted the inaugural Buccaneers University Student-Athlete Transition Program. The free, interactive event was created for high school athletes preparing to play college football and focused on career development, decision-making, media preparation, time management and other important skills to help students succeed at the next level of play. Students learned from Morris, assistant coaches, team officials and former college players as they discussed real-life issues to prepare for college.

Morris' commitment to youth development extends through a variety of outreach efforts. In 2010 and 2011, he presented "Bucs for Books" scholarships to graduating high school students to assist with academic-related costs for college. Morris has also visited Middleton High School, Sulphur Springs Elementary School, and Walton Academy for the Performing Arts to reinforce the importance of scholastic achievement and encourage high performance in the classroom. In the past two years, he has dedicated a new Play 60 Zone at LaVoy Exceptional Center and Carver Exceptional Center in Tampa to support the physical fitness and academic development of Tampa's neediest students. Additionally, he has helped surprise two deserving single mothers with a brand new car through the Buccaneers' "Road to Success" program, been a guest speaker at the Hillsborough County Public Schools SERVE awards for local teachers, and helped dedicate the grand opening of the First Tee Learning Center at the Rogers Park Golf Course in Tampa.

Along with his passion for youth education, Morris helps raise funds and awareness for cancer research, heart disease, and youth athletics, among many other causes. He actively supports the charitable efforts and player foundations of current and former Buccaneers, and regularly volunteers for team community relations events and initiatives throughout the year.

Morris played collegiately as a safety at Hofstra from 1994-1997, and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. Morris, who hails from Irvington, New Jersey, was presented the Key to the City in his hometown during "Raheem Morris Day" on June 5, 2009.

GREG OLSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

10TH NFL SEASON: 4TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Greg Olson begins his third season as offensive coordinator with the Buccaneers and fourth with the club overall after serving as the quarterbacks coach in 2008. Olson entered the 2009 season as quarterbacks coach, but was elevated to his current position in September prior to the season opener. He is a veteran of nine years in the NFL and 15 years in the college ranks.

In his second year serving as offensive coordinator—and the first year benefitting from a full offseason—Olson's plans for the Buccaneers offense solidified under second-year QB Josh Freeman. Freeman blossomed in his first full season as a starter, finishing as the sixth-ranked passer in the league while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns, and only six interceptions, placing him ninth for the best touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history. Olson helped guide Freeman and Tampa Bay to one of its best offensive seasons in team history, setting franchise records for best average gain-per-play (5.61 yards), best average rush (4.64 yards), best average pass play (7.21 yards), best team passer rating (96.2) and fewest interceptions thrown (six). The Buccaneers also finished with the fourth-most points scored (341), third-most yards of total offense (5,362) and second-best third down percentage (42.2%) in a single season in team history. The team's offensive production also led to the first time in team history that the club finished with at least 2,000 rushing yards and 3,000 net passing yards in the same season.

As the youngest team in the league in 2010, it seems only fitting that Olson's offense was bolstered by a contingent of high-performing rookies. WR Mike Williams, a fourth-round draft pick, made an immediate impact for Tampa Bay and finished the year leading all rookie receivers in the league in every major receiving category, coming in second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting while setting a single-season team record with 11 touchdown receptions. RB LeGarrette Blount joined the Buccaneers as an undrafted rookie free agent, and eventually earned the starting spot in the backfield. Blount's 1,007 yards led all rookie running backs in rushing yards, becoming just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards in a single season. The accomplishments of Williams and Blount marked the first time in league history that a team has had two different players lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards since 1968. Along with WR Arrelious Benn, a second-round draft choice who contributed heavily to the receiving corps before sustaining an injury that prematurely ended his season, Olson's offense fielded 10 separate Rookie of the Week award nominations throughout the season.

Veteran players continued to play important roles in the offensive plans in 2010, as well. T Donald Penn earned his first Pro Bowl nod while TE Kellen Winslow maintained the high standard he set in 2009, tying for fourth in the NFL in third-down receiving (28 receptions) and recording 66 receptions for 730 yards and five touchdowns on the season. RB Carnell Williams recorded the second consecutive season in which he played in all 16 games; a major accomplishment following two separate career-threatening knee injuries sustained in 2007 and 2008. Williams became a key third-down back for the Buccaneers in 2010.

Despite his late elevation to the coordinator position in 2009, Olson's offense showed consistent growth around then-rookie first-round pick Freeman. On the season, the offense recorded three games of 400-plus yards of total offense, including 469 yards of total offense at Carolina, the fifth-best single-game performance in team history and the most by the team in over 20 years. Working closely with Olson, Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records for touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games. He also threw the most touchdown passes in a single game by a rookie in team history as he became the second-youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970 with a 38-28 come-from-behind win over Green Bay in Week 9.

Olson's offense relied heavily on Winslow as he pieced together a Pro Bowl worthy campaign after being acquired in an offseason trade. Winslow had the best season by a tight end in team history in 2009 as he led or tied for the team lead in receptions in 12 of the 16 games and also led the team in receiving yards eight times. He finished first on the team in receptions (77) and receiving yards (884), both good for single-season franchise records among tight ends. Winslow also led the team with five receiving touchdowns, matching his single-season career-high and tied for the fourth-most in a single season among Buccaneer tight ends.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2008, Olson was part of an offense that ranked 14th in the NFL and ninth in the NFC in total offense. In addition, the Buccaneers featured the 11th-ranked passing offense in the NFL in 2008 as Tampa Bay signal callers passed for 3,788 yards. It marked the second-highest passing yardage total in team history while the 63.2 completion percentage in 2008 ranked third in team history and the 83.8 passer rating by Olson's unit was the fourth best in team annals. The Buccaneers offense finished the season amassing 5,456 total yards, the highest total in team history, while scoring 361 points, the second-highest total in team annals. Under Olson's tutelage, QB Jeff Garcia ranked tied for second in the NFL for fewest interceptions (6), ninth in the league and third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.9) and ninth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC in quarterback rating (90.2).

Prior to joining Tampa Bay Olson spent two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In his first year with the Rams in 2006, he helped guide a high-powered offense that ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (360.4 yards per game) and a passing offense that ranked third (247.6 ypg) in the NFC. The Rams ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL in first downs (332), and scored 273 points in the red zone, second-most in the NFC.

Under Olson's direction, the 2006 Rams became just the fourth team in NFL history to produce a passer with more than 4,000 yards (QB Marc Bulger), a rusher with more than 1,500 yards (RB Steven Jackson) and two receivers with more than 1,000 yards (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Jackson, and Holt were all selected to the Pro Bowl. Bulger also posted career-highs in passing yards (4,301), passing touchdowns (24), passing attempts (588) and completions (370) while ranking second in the NFL in interception percentage (1.4%). He also finished second in the NFL in completions, third in passing yards and fourth in touchdown passes. Jackson also had a career-year in 2006, leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 2,334 and he led all NFL running backs with 90 receptions and was fifth in the NFL in rushing yards with 1,528.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach (2004) and one season as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2005) for the Detroit Lions. In 2004, Olson took over play calling duties for the Detroit Lions with three games remaining in the season as the Lions offense went on to average 403.6 total yards per game. In 2005, Olson was named offensive coordinator of the Lions in Week 11. He also spent one season each as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears (2003) and tight ends/recruiting coordinator at Purdue University (2002).

Olson originally entered the league in 2001 with the San Francisco 49ers as quarterbacks coach and helped guide Garcia to one of the best seasons in his career. Garcia posted a career-high 32 touchdown passes, his second-best career number in passing yardage (3,538) and his third-best career numbers in passer rating (94.8) and completion percentage (62.7) as he was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Olson was quarterbacks coach at Purdue from 1997-2000, and played a key role in the development of Pro Bowl and Super Bowl winning QB Drew Brees. Under Olson, Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000, while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's outstanding player in 2000. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback in 1999 and 2000. Brees ended his collegiate career as the Big Ten and Purdue's all-time leader in passing yardage (11,792), touchdowns passes (90), total yards (12,693), completion percentage (61.1%), completions (1,026) and attempts (1,678). He also ranked fourth in NCAA Division I-A history for total offense, completions and attempts upon his departure from Purdue. In addition, Brees led Purdue to the 2000 Rose Bowl, the school's first appearance in Pasadena since 1967. Under Olson, Brees had seven 400-yard passing games and 16 300-yard passing games. Brees earned Big Ten player of Year honors in 1998 and 2000 and All-Conference accolades for three straight years (1998-2000). As a senior he was named Academic All-America Player of the Year and was the first recipient of the Socrates Award, recognizing the nation's finest athlete in terms of academics, athletics, and community service.

From 1994-96, Olson was quarterbacks coach at Idaho. The team's passing attack in 1996 ranked fourth in the country, fifth in total offense, and 15th in scoring. The Vandals were second in the nation in total offense and scoring, and seventh in passing in 1994. Olson tutored QB Ryan Fien at Idaho, who earned All-Conference honors and finished second in the nation in total offense for the 1996 season.

Before his time at Idaho, Olson was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Central Washington, from 1990-93, where the school finished as the top-ranked National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics school in total offense in 1991 and 1993. Olson developed first team All-American QB Jon Kitna in his rise from NAIA starter to 1997 World Bowl MVP to NFL starter in Seattle, Cincinnati and Detroit. Also during Olson's stint at Central Washington, he served as a wrestling coach for four seasons, including the last two as head coach, helping lead the program to a sixth-place finish at his final NAIA National Tournament.

Olson got his coaching start as a graduate assistant in 1987 at Washington State under the tutelage of Head Coaches Dennis Erickson (1987-88) and Mike Price (1989), where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration.

Olson played quarterback at Spokane Falls Junior College from 1981-82 and at Central Washington from 1983-84, earning his bachelor's degree in education in 1986. The Richland, Washington native is married to Lissa with twins, Kenneth and Grayce. Lissa was the first female to be named a Head Coach of a Division I Track and Field Men's track team when she was named the Head Coach at Purdue University in March of 2001. She is currently an assistant track coach at the University of South Florida.

Dwayne Stukes enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and first as Special Teams Coordinator after having served two seasons as the assistant defensive backs coach (2009-10), one as the special teams quality control coach (2008) and two as a coaches assistant (2006-07).

In 2010, Stukes aided in the development of young defensive backs CB Aqib Talib, CB E.J. Biggers and S Cody Grimm. While Talib and Grimm's seasons ended prematurely due to injury, both impressed. Talib continued to showcase himself as one of the best rising corners in the league, leading the team and ranking tied for fifth in the NFL and second in the NFC with a career-high six interceptions despite playing in only 11 games. Grimm, a rookie seventh-round draft pick, earned a starting role and finished the year tied for second on the team with three picks, including one returned for a touchdown despite also only playing in 11 games.

The 2009 season marked Stukes' first year as assistant defensive backs coach, where he helped tutor Talib and S Tanard Jackson, who each finished the season with five interceptions to tie for the team lead. Additionally, Jackson returned two of his interceptions for touchdowns to lead the team.

Stukes assisted Richard Bisaccia, the then associate head coach/special teams and running backs, in the coaching of the Buccaneers special teams unit in 2008. That season's campaign proved to be one of the best special teams campaigns in franchise history as rookie return man Clifton Smith became the first-ever Buccaneer selected to the Pro Bowl as a kick returner. Smith was also the only Buccaneer to earn All-Pro honors, garnering second-team recognition, and was the only player in the NFL in 2008 and only player in Buccaneers history to return a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown. Smith ranked fifth in the NFL and second in the NFC with a 27.6-yard kickoff return average while ranking second in the NFL and first in the NFC with a 14.1-yard punt return average in 2008. In 2007, Stukes helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South title.

A former defensive back, Stukes spent parts of four seasons in the NFL from 2000-03 as a member of the Buccaneers, Atlanta Falcons and Pittsburgh Steelers. He also spent time with NFL Europe's Berlin Thunder (2001-02) and the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush (2004).

Stukes was a four-year letterman at the University of Virginia, seeing action at cornerback. A history major, Stukes was awarded UVA's Gretchen Savin Macillwaine Football Scholarship, given for outstanding academic achievement.

Joe Baker enters his second season as the Buccaneers' linebackers coach in 2011, and third season with the team overall, having served as the defensive backs coach for Tampa Bay in 2009.

Baker's first season with the linebackers saw him working with veterans Barrett Ruud, Geno Hayes and Quincy Black, which contributed to Tampa Bay finishing ranked seventh in the league against the pass. Ruud led the team in tackles on the season for the fourth consecutive year, finishing with 161 and joining Buccaneers great Derrick Brooks as only the second player in team history to lead Tampa Bay in that category for four or more seasons. Hayes also put in a strong performance, leading the team with a career-high 15 TFL and turning in four sacks in the last quarter of the season, including his first multi-sack game against Seattle and an interception returned for a touchdown at Arizona. Black was the only Buccaneer defender to record a statistic in every defensive category on the season, and ranked fifth on the team with 88 tackles, despite only playing in 11 games. After Black was placed on Injured Reserve following a forearm injury late in the season, Adam Hayward and rookie seventh-round draft pick Dekoda Watson split duties at the Sam position, where they filled in admirably.

Prior to tutoring the linebacking corps, Baker was in charge of one of the most talented units on the field for Tampa Bay as he worked with the defensive backs in 2009. Baker led the group to a No. 10 ranking in the NFL in pass defense. Captained by five-time Pro Bowl CB Ronde Barber, the secondary accounted for 15 interceptions over the season. Both S Tanard Jackson and CB Aqib Talib played at a Pro Bowl level under Baker as they tied for the team lead in interceptions with five each. Despite missing the first four games of the season, Jackson ranked sixth on the team with 85 tackles while leading the team with two interception returns for touchdowns. Talib continued to cement his reputation as one of the league's top shut-down cornerbacks as he repeatedly lined up against the opponent's best receiver and led the team with 17 passes defended while matching a team record by picking off three passes in a Week 4 matchup at Washington. Barber led the secondary and ranked third on the team with 93 tackles and added two sacks on the season.

Baker spent the two seasons (2007-08) with the Denver Broncos prior to joining the Buccaneers, serving as an offensive assistant in 2008 and as the club's linebackers coach in 2007. Baker coached for the St. Louis Rams (2006), Green Bay Packers (2005), New Orleans Saints (2000-04) and Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-98) before joining Denver in 2007.

Baker helped guide a Broncos offense in 2008 that finished the season as the NFL's second-ranked offense, averaging 395.8 yards per game. As linebackers coach for the Broncos in 2007, Baker instructed D.J. Williams as the fourth-year player transitioned to playing the middle linebacker position for the first time in his career and finished second in the NFL with an AFC-best 141 tackles. Baker's group of linebackers was also a key part of an aggressive defense that led the AFC and tied for third in the league with 34 forced fumbles.

With Baker handling defensive quality control and working with the linebackers in 2006, the Rams ranked seventh in the NFL in takeaways (32) and forced a league-high nine turnovers inside the red zone. Baker instructed LB Will Witherspoon, who posted a career and team-high 136 tackles to lead a linebacking unit that helped St. Louis rank eighth in the league against the pass (189.7 ypg).

Baker joined the Rams from Green Bay, where he spent the 2005 season as its secondary/safeties coach. He taught a secondary that helped the Packers rank first in the NFL against the pass, allowing 167.5 yards per game to mark the club's lowest such total in 27 seasons.

In five years with the Saints from 2000-2004, Baker coached in several different capacities as New Orleans ranked fifth in the NFL in takeaways (163) during his time with the club. He was New Orleans' secondary coach from 2003-2004, secondary assistant in 2002 and assistant defensive backfield/assistant special teams coach from 2000-2001.

Baker instructed a New Orleans secondary in 2004 that was vital to one of the NFL's most aggressive defenses, with the team leading the league in opponent fumble recoveries (20) and tying for the NFL high in red zone takeaways (7). New Orleans' defensive backfield also excelled under Baker in 2003, as it helped the club to rank third in the NFC and eighth in NFL in pass defense (187.1 ypg.).

During the 2001 season as New Orleans' defensive backfield/assistant special teams coach, Baker instructed S Sammy Knight as he posted the third-highest interception total (six) among NFL safeties to earn a Pro Bowl selection.

At the University of Wisconsin in 1999, Baker was the Badgers' outside linebackers/special teams coach for a team that captured the Big Ten Conference title and earned a victory in the Rose Bowl. Wisconsin led the Big Ten in kickoff and punt coverage, kickoff return average and field goal percentage with Baker instructing its special teams.

Baker began his NFL career in 1994 with the Jacksonville Jaguars as their manager of football operations, helping the club prepare for its 1995 expansion season. He worked as the Jaguars' assistant special teams coach for the next four seasons (1995-98), a time period when Jacksonville fielded one of the league's most consistent special teams units. From 1995-98, the Jaguars ranked second in the NFL in net punting average (37.9 avg.), third in gross punting average (44.4 avg.), seventh in punt return average (11.0 avg.) and eighth in opponent punt return average (8.2 avg.).

With Baker on its coaching staff, Jacksonville advanced to the AFC Championship Game in just its second season in 1996. The Jaguars posted 11 wins in each of the next two seasons with two of Baker's pupils, K Mike Hollis and P Bryan Barker, earning Pro Bowl honors in 1997.

Before joining the Jaguars, Baker coached running backs and wide receivers at Samford University (Birmingham, Alabama) in 1993. He spent time in 1992 as a player personnel coordinator for the World Football League's Birmingham Fire before taking a position at Samford.

Baker began his football coaching career in 1991 as a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg University (PA) instructing its defensive backs.

A former wide receiver at Princeton University (1987-1990), Baker helped the Tigers capture the 1989 Ivy League co-championship. He graduated from the school in 1991 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Baker was born June 29, 1969, in Glen Ridge, N.J. He and his wife, Jill, have a 11-year-old daughter, Mia, and a seven-year-old son, Joey. One of the Baker's passions is giving back to the community. He and his wife both sit on the Board of PlaySmart, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing underprivileged kids the opportunity to play sports.

Tim Berbenich enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers in 2011 and third as assistant wide receivers coach.

Working alongside Wide Receivers Coach Eric Yarber in 2010, Berbenich tutored a young group of wideouts that included four rookies, two of whom, Arrelious Benn and Mike Williams, were draft picks. Despite its youth, the receiving corps excelled throughout the season. Each active receiver caught passes, while five of the seven recorded touchdown receptions. Williams finished his season leading all rookie receivers in the league in every major category for his position, and finished second in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

2009 marked Berbenich's first season working with the wide receivers. Antonio Bryant led all wide receivers with four touchdown catches while Maurice Stovall achieved a career-high 366 yards on 24 receptions with one touchdown. Berbenich also assisted rookie Sammie Stroughter, who emerged from a seventh-round pick in the 2009 draft to finish third on the team with 31 receptions on the season.

In 2008, Berbenich worked closely with Richard Bisaccia, associate head coach/running backs and special teams, in the instruction of the Buccaneers running backs. His contributions helped the Buccaneers rush for an average of 4.07 yards-per-carry, the fifth-highest average in team history and Tampa Bay's 114.8 rushing yards per game in 2008 was the ninth-best average in team history.

Berbenich spent his first two seasons (2006-07) as an offensive quality control coach with Tampa Bay. In 2007, he helped lead the Buccaneers to the 2007 NFC South title.

Berbenich joined the Tampa Bay staff after spending parts of six seasons (2000-05) with the N.Y. Jets organization, including three years (2003-2005) on the coaching staff.

With the Jets, Berbenich worked as an offensive assistant during the 2003 and 2004 seasons before adding quality control duties in 2005. He initially joined the Jets on a full-time basis in 2002 as an operations assistant after interning with the team in operations during training camp from 2000-2002. During his tenure, the team reached the playoffs during the 2002 and 2004 seasons.

Berbenich played wide receiver for Hamilton College in Clinton, New York from 1998-2001 while earning his degree in economics.

Born December 19, 1979 in Huntington, New York, Berbenich is married to Diane and resides in Tampa. The couple has one son, Jack Colton, born September 25, 2009.

Tim Holt enters his third season with Tampa Bay and first as assistant offensive line coach in 2011.

Holt spent the 2010 season as an offensive assistant coach, concentrating most of his work on the offensive line, which, despite having eight different starting lineup combinations throughout the season due to injuries, helped the Tampa Bay rushing attack to the sixth-best ranking in the league during the final 10 weeks of the season. LT Donald Penn also earned his first Pro Bowl trip after a strong season protecting QB Josh Freeman's blindside.

In 2009, Holt joined the Buccaneers working as a coaching intern during spring OTAs, concentrating on tight ends before helping with the offensive line during training camp and the regular season.

Prior to entering the NFL, Holt spent 14 seasons (1995-2008) coaching collegiately, including a combined six seasons at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State.

Holt attended Southern Connecticut State where he played on the offensive line for the Owls for four seasons (1991-94) and was a three-year letter winner.

He is married to Bridget and the couple has four daughters: Madailein, Cailin, Aislinn and Tegwyn.

Jay Kaiser enters his third season with the Buccaneers as Assistant to the Head Coach in 2011. He is responsible for assisting Head Coach Raheem Morris in organizing football operations for the club. Kaiser manages several elements of Morris's off-field agenda, including the day-to-day schedule, player and staff communications and the football calendar, including the offseason programs, mini-camps and training camp.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kaiser spent seven seasons (2002-08) on the Kansas State football staff. In 2008, he served as the director of recruiting operations for the Wildcats. In addition to organizing Kansas State's recruiting efforts, he assisted with day-to-day operations and oversaw the Powercat Pride program.

Kaiser served as a graduate assistant at Toledo before working for Kansas State, where he spent one year as the Rockets' assistant quarterbacks and receivers coach. He also coached tight ends and special teams at Northern Iowa as an assistant coach in 1999 following a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State. While on staff with the Bearcats, Kaiser helped the program win an NCAA Division II national title.

Kaiser received his start as a student coach at Bethany College from 1993 through 1996. He earned a bachelor's degree from Bethany and later added a master's degree from Northwest Missouri State.

A native of Liberal, Kansas, Kaiser is married to the former Camille Base. The couple has two children, Karson and Payton.

5TH NFL SEASON: 3RD WITH BUCCANEERS

Chris Keenan enters his third season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Buccaneers in 2011. His duties include assisting Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Kurtis Shultz in the implementation of the Buccaneers' conditioning program. Keenan spent two academic years (2006-08) with Tulane University after working as an assistant to the Buccaneers strength and conditioning staff during the 2006 offseason.

For the Green Wave, Keenan served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the women's cross country team, the women's tennis program and the women's volleyball team. He was part of the 2008 women's volleyball team that won the Conference USA title and made it to the NCAA volleyball tournament for the first time in school history. Keenan also assisted in creating different strength and conditioning workouts for various other sports.

Keenan's first stint with the Buccaneers came after he spent 2004-05 as the assistant to the strength and conditioning coaches at the Minnesota Vikings. Keenan worked under Shultz, who served as Minnesota's head strength and conditioning coach during that time. The 2005 Vikings sent a pair of first-year players, FS Darren Sharper and KR/WR Koren Robinson, to the Pro Bowl.

Keenan got his start in coaching in 2003 at Iowa State University, where he spent one year serving as a strength and conditioning aide for athletes.

He was a fullback on the Drake University football team from 1999-2001. During his junior year, Keenan transferred to Iowa State where he majored in exercise science.

Keenan was born on November 3, 1980 in Creston, Iowa.

Jimmy Lake enters his fourth season overall with Tampa Bay in 2011, after having returned to the club for a second stint in 2010 to serve as the defensive backs coach. Lake served as assistant defensive backs coach for two seasons (2006-07) in his first experience with the Buccaneers.

Lake's defensive backs performed on a high level in 2010, anchored by five-time Pro Bowler CB Ronde Barber and utilizing the talents of young playmakers CB Aqib Talib, CB E.J. Biggers and S Cody Grimm. The unit was part of a defense that finished ranked seventh in the league against the pass. In his 14th season, Barber showed no sign of slowing his play, as he turned in three interceptions on the season, ranked first on the team with 16 passes defended and third with 102 tackles. Talib—despite a hip injury that ended his season prematurely—was named the NFL Alumni Defensive Back of the Year after leading the team and ranking tied for fifth in the NFL and second in the NFC with a career-high six interceptions, including his first interception returned for a touchdown. In Talib's absence, Biggers saw significant action and finished the year ranked second on the team with 12 passes defended. Under Lake's tutelage, Grimm, a seventh-round pick from the 2010 NFL Draft, earned a starting role and finished the year tied for second on the team with three interceptions, including one for a touchdown, despite playing in only 11 games because of injury.

In between appointments in Tampa Bay, Lake spent the 2008 season in Detroit as the Lions secondary coach.

He entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2006, aiding Tampa Bay's secondary in several major accomplishments. Barber was selected to the Pro Bowl following both seasons with Lake on the staff, and in 2007 the Buccaneers finished with the top-ranked pass defense in the NFL and second-ranked defense overall.

Lake was the secondary coach at Montana State in 2005 and under his guidance the Bobcats' defense ended the season ranked number one in the Big Sky Conference. The secondary also allowed a conference-low 165.6 yards per game passing.

In 2004, Lake coached cornerbacks and nickelbacks at the University of Washington. During his time there, the secondary ranked first in the Pac-10 and 17th in the nation in pass defense.

From 2000-03, Lake coached the secondary at Eastern Washington University, his alma mater, after serving as an undergraduate assistant in 1999.

During his time as a player for Eastern Washington, Lake was a standout strong safety, earning All-Big Sky Academic honors and honorable mention awards as a senior. He graduated in 2000 with a degree in Business Administration.

Lake and his wife, Michele, have three children: Jimmy Jr., Faith, and Bronson.

Steve Logan enters his third season as Tampa Bay's running backs coach in 2011 after spending two seasons (2007-08) as the offensive coordinator for Boston College.

In 2010, Logan oversaw the emergence of rookie LeGarrette Blount from an undrafted free agent to starter and major force in the Buccaneers' backfield. Blount finished the season as the league's leader in rushing yards for rookie running backs while being named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA and earning FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week (Dec. 23-28) and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month (December). His season—finishing first in rushing yards (1,007), second in yards per carry (5.0), first in yards per game (77.5) and tied for second in touchdowns (6) among all rookie running backs—ranked as one of the best ever by an undrafted rookie running back since the 1970 merger. He was just the second undrafted back to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in their rookie year. Logan also worked with Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, who played an integral role as a third-down back and, for the second consecutive year following two separate career-threatening knee injuries, saw action in all 16 games.

Logan's inaugural NFL season in 2009 was highlighted by Williams' successful return from knee injuries sustained in 2007 and 2008. Williams played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, finishing as the team's leading rusher with 823 yards and four touchdowns and added three receiving touchdowns. He ended the season with 1,040 total yards from scrimmage and finished second in the 2009 AP Comeback Player of the Year vote.

In 2008, Logan guided an Eagles offense that helped Boston College earn a 9-5 record with appearances in the ACC Championship Game and the Music City Bowl. In 2007, Logan's offense, led by ACC Player of the Year and Atlanta Falcons' first-round draft choice QB Matt Ryan, led the ACC in total offense and passing offense and finished third in scoring offense. Ryan completed 388-of-654 passes for 4,507 yards and 31 touchdowns, setting new Boston College single-season records for completions, yards and touchdowns and ACC records in completions and yardage.

Logan joined the Boston College staff after two seasons (2004-05) as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach with the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe and one season (2006) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach with the Rhein Fire. Logan helped Dave Ragone (2004) and Rohan Davey (2005) earn Offensive Player of the Year and All-NFL Europe honors.

Prior to his stint in NFL Europe, Logan served as the head coach of East Carolina from 1992-2002. He became the school's all-time winningest coach (69-58), and led the Pirates to five bowl games, including the 1994 St. Jude Liberty Bowl, the 1995 St. Jude Liberty Bowl, the 1999 Mobile Alabama Bowl, the 2000 Galleryfurniture.com Bowl, and the 2001 GMAC Bowl. Logan led the 1995 team to a 9-3 record and a No. 23 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Logan is widely regarded as an offensive architect, and began implementing his system as co-offensive coordinator for ECU in 1990 and 1991. The 1991 team finished 11-1, reached a Top-10 national ranking and defeated North Carolina State in the Peach Bowl.

Logan began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Union High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 1974. In 1980, he became the tight ends coach at Oklahoma State under head coach Jimmy Johnson. He moved to Hutchinson Junior College for two years before taking the reigns as offensive coordinator at Tulsa under John Cooper from 1983-1984. Logan headed for Colorado in 1985, coaching the Buffalo running backs for two years before coaching the quarterbacks at Mississippi State from 1987-1989.

Logan, a 1975 graduate of Tulsa, developed much of his coaching philosophy through the influence of several head coaches. He worked with former Ohio State coach John Cooper at Tulsa, former Miami Dolphins coach Jimmy Johnson at Oklahoma State, former Colorado coach Bill McCartney, and with Bill Lewis at East Carolina.

Logan and his wife, Laura, are the parents of two sons, Vincent and Nathanael.

Pat Morris enters his first season with Tampa Bay as offensive line coach, having spent the previous five seasons (2006-10) in the same position with the Minnesota Vikings.

Morris has over three decades of coaching experience, including 14 seasons in the NFL, during which time he has coached lines that allowed for the league's top rushing ranking three times (1998, 1999, 2007) and that ranked in the top 10 on nine occasions.

During Morris' tenure with the Vikings, he consistently produced lines that performed on high levels, sending linemen to the Pro Bowl from 2007-10 and helping lead Minnesota to two consecutive NFC North titles from 2008-09. In 2008, his offensive line also aided RB Adrian Peterson in becoming the first Viking in franchise history to lead the league in rushing, and protected QB Brett Favre through one of the best statistical seasons of his career.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Morris served two seasons (2004-05) as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions and seven seasons (1997-03) with the San Francisco 49ers as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach from 1997-98 and the offensive line coach from 1999-2003. The 49ers made the playoffs four of his seven years on staff, with a pair of NFC West titles, and the team totaled the second-highest rushing total in the NFL during that time, averaging 135.5 yards per game over the seven-year span and sending four offensive linemen to the Pro Bowl under Morris' direction.

Morris and Buccaneers Offensive Coordinator Greg Olson previously worked together at both San Francisco and Detroit, where the latter served as Quarterbacks Coach and Quarterbacks Coach/Offensive Coordinator, respectively. Morris is also familiar with Buccaneers LT Donald Penn, whom he coached during Penn's time with the Minnesota practice squad prior to being signed by Tampa Bay.

Morris also coached extensively in the college ranks before moving to the NFL, having spent 21 seasons coaching at the likes of Michigan State, Southern California and Stanford, among others.

He began his coaching career at USC as a graduate assistant from 1976-77, following his own playing days as a Trojan offensive lineman from 1972-75.

During his college playing and coaching career, Morris was associated with five Rose Bowl teams and two National Championships.

Morris was born in Cleveland, OH and currently resides in Tampa with wife, Kathy.

KEITH MILLARD

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

8TH NFL SEASON: 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Keith Millard joins the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for his first season with the team, serving as a co-defensive line coach alongside Grady Stretz.

Millard, who specializes in the pass rush while also working with the defensive tackles, has spent 13 seasons coaching, including three seasons with the Denver Broncos (2002-04) as assistant defensive line coach/pass rush specialist and, most recently, four seasons with the Oakland Raiders (2005-08) as Defensive Line Coach. Prior to coming to the NFL coaching ranks, he spent one season in the XFL and five on the collegiate level.

While with the Raiders, Millard tutored DE Derrick Burgess to two Pro Bowls, including following the 2005 season in which Burgess led the NFL with 16 sacks. In 2006, Millard was part of the defensive leadership that helped the Raiders to a third-place ranking in the NFL in total defense and the first-place position against the pass. He also worked with DT Warren Sapp during the 2006 season, when Sapp led all defensive tackles with 10 sacks. Under Millard's watch, two Raiders defensive linemen (Burgess and Chris Clemons) ranked among the AFC's Top 10 in sacks in 2007.

As a member of Denver's coaching staff, Millard helped the team to two Top five finishes in total defense (2002 and 2004) and also coached a pass rush unit that finished fourth in the NFL for sacks by a defensive line in 2004, when the Broncos were the only team to have three separate players record at least 8.5 sacks (Bertrand Berry, Trevor Pryce and Reggie Hayward).

Millard successfully instructed Burgess, Clemons, Berry and Hayward—all of whom had been in the league at least three years prior to Millard coaching them—to the first double-digit sack recordings in each of their respective careers.

A former NFL first-round draft pick in 1984 by the Minnesota Vikings, Millard also brings a wealth of firsthand on-field experience to Tampa Bay. During his outstanding nine-year career (1985-93), he earned three All-Pro nods, two Pro Bowl invitations, two NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year awards and one NFL Defensive Player of the Year award, in addition to being named to the NFL 1980s All-Decade Team. He currently holds the record for the most sacks in a single season by a defensive tackle with 18 in 1989.

Millard began his pro career in the USFL, playing one season with the Jacksonville Bulls, ranking second in the league in sacks (12) behind Reggie White (12.5).

At Washington State, Millard played at tight end as a freshman before moving to defensive tackle as a sophomore. He was voted first-team All-Pac-10 as a senior and won the Morris Trophy as the Pac-10's top defensive lineman.

Millard and his wife, Paula, reside in Dublin, CA, and have six children: Dustin, Johnny, Jack, Keith Jr., Mandy and Kade.

Pettaway joins the Buccaneers after spending the past two seasons as a defensive assistant, serving one season with the University of Tennessee in 2009 and working with USC in 2010. That experience followed a 2008 season where he coached Christopher Newport University's defensive line, helping the Captains achieve their first unbeaten USA South conference record and qualify for the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Before joining the CNU staff, Pettaway coached linebackers at Division II Fort Valley State University in Georgia, where he worked on his master's degree. He has also spent time working with the Pittsburgh Steelers during the team's training camp.

Pettaway played collegiately at St. Augustine's College in Raleigh, NC, where he was the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Year in 2005.

A native of Newport News, Virginia, Pettaway currently resides in Tampa.

Alfredo Roberts enters his third season in Tampa Bay's tight ends coach after spending two seasons (2007-08) in the same capacity with the Cleveland Browns.

In 2010, Roberts' tight ends put in a strong performance as a unit, from younger players to veterans. The group was highlighted by the play of Kellen Winslow. Winslow extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 76—accounting for every game in his career and standing as the third-longest active streak among tight ends and the eighth-longest active streak overall. He finished the season first on the team in receptions (66) and second in receiving yards (730) with five touchdowns, and was a reliable target for second-year QB Josh Freeman on third down, as he recorded 28 third-down receptions to tie for fourth in the league. Veteran John Gilmore also stepped in with one of his most productive seasons as a Buccaneer in 2010, recording 13 receptions for a career-high 160 yards and one touchdown.

In his first season with Tampa Bay, Roberts welcomed Winslow, his former Cleveland pupil, to the unit following an offseason trade. Winslow excelled under Roberts as he had in the past, posting one of the best seasons for a tight end in team history. He finished first on the team in receptions (77) and receiving yards (884), both good for single season franchise records among tight ends. Winslow led or tied for the team lead in receptions in 12 of the 16 games in 2009 and also led the team in receiving yards eight times. He also led the team with five receiving touchdowns, matching his single-season career-high and tied for the fourth-most in a single season among Buccaneer tight ends.

While on the Browns staff, Roberts tutored standout TE Steve Heiden and Winslow, who recorded 125 receptions for 1,534 yards and eight touchdowns from 2007-08. In 2007, Winslow was one of the most dominating tight ends in the game, setting a career high with 1,106 yards and five touchdowns. Winslow was named to his first Pro Bowl that season and ranked third among NFL tight ends with his 82 receptions and 1,106 yards.

Prior to joining the Browns, Roberts served in the same capacity with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2003-06. With the Jaguars, Roberts worked with veteran tight ends Kyle Brady, Brian Jones and Todd Yoder. He also worked with promising young tight ends George Wrihster (39 receptions for 353 yards in 2006) and the Jaguars first-round selection Mercedes Lewis (13 receptions for 126 yards in 2006).

Prior to joining the Jaguars staff, Roberts was a member of the inaugural coaching staff at Florida Atlantic University from 1999-2002. Roberts served as wide receivers coach for his final two seasons at Florida Atlantic before exiting the college ranks for the NFL.

Roberts attended the University of Miami from 1983-87, where he was a member of two national champion-ship teams. The first was under Howard Schnellenberger in 1983, which was the school's first championship, and again in 1987 under Jimmy Johnson. Roberts played on five bowl teams for the Hurricanes, including two Orange Bowls, two Fiesta Bowls and one Sugar Bowl.

Roberts was an eighth-round draft pick by Kansas City in the 1988 NFL draft, spending three seasons with the Chiefs. In 1991, he joined the Dallas Cowboys and was a part of two Super Bowl championship teams under the guidance of Jimmy Johnson, in 1992 and 1993. Roberts played in 16 straight games for five consecutive seasons until his career ended in 1994 following foot and knee injuries. During his six-year NFL career, Roberts was considered one of the best blocking tight ends in the game.

Roberts and his wife, Angel, have twin sons, Avery and Austin, and one daughter, Alyssa.

KURTIS SHULTZ

HEAD STRENGTH
& CONDITIONING COACH

9TH NFL SEASON: 6TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Kurtis Shultz enters his third season as the Buccaneers' head strength and conditioning coach and sixth season with the team overall in 2011, after serving three seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach (2006-08). Shultz oversees the implementation of the Buccaneers year-round conditioning program while also maintaining the 9,353 square foot workout facility that he helped design.

Shultz's conditioning programs have aided in the development of the Buccaneers' young roster. Second-year QB Josh Freeman completed his first full season as a starter in 2010, while leading the team to a 10-6 record and finishing as the sixth-rated passer in the league. Tampa Bay became the first club since the merger in 1970 to start 10+ rookies throughout the season and still finish with a winning record.

Shultz also played a role in LT Donald Penn's first Pro Bowl selection and helped oversee the successful comeback of RB Carnell Williams following the career-threatening knee injuries he sustained in 2007 and 2008. 2010 marked the second consecutive season that Williams played in all 16 games.

In 2008, Shultz worked with Davin Joseph as well as undrafted rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith to earn their first trips to the Pro Bowl while also helping veterans CB Ronde Barber and LB Derrick Brooks earn their fifth and 11th selections, respectively.

Shultz was a key member of the coaching staff in 2007 that led Tampa Bay to the NFC South division title while helping QB Jeff Garcia reach his fourth Pro Bowl. Additionally under Shultz, G Arron Sears and DE Gaines Adams were named to the 2007 PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team.

In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2006, Shultz helped three Buccaneers earn trips to the Pro Bowl: Barber, Brooks and LS Dave Moore. Shultz was also vital in the preparation and layout of the team's training facility that opened that year.

Shultz joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons (2004-05) with the Minnesota Vikings as head strength and conditioning coach. In his first season with the Vikings in 2004, Shultz implemented a dynamic and intense strength and conditioning program. The results were immediate as the Vikings made dramatic gains in strength, flexibility and endurance. The 2005 Vikings continued to build on the foundation that Shultz' program established as the team sent a pair of first-year Vikings, FS Darren Sharper and KR/WR Koren Robinson, to the Pro Bowl.

Shultz came to the Vikings after spending the 2003 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. Shultz was part of a first-year Bengals staff under head coach Marvin Lewis that went 8-8, the best record by a Bengals club since the 8-8 team in 1996. The 2003 Bengals were able to stay remarkably healthy, losing only two players to injured reserve.

Shultz gained the bulk of his professional experience as strength coach for the University of Maryland basketball program, helping the team to the NCAA title during the 2001-02 season. Shultz left Maryland for the Bengals during the 2002-03 season, but was part of a Terrapin program that played in the NCAA Tournament each of his four seasons on the staff, advancing to the Final Four in 2000-01 and the Sweet 16 in 2002-03. While working for the Terrapins, he also headed the strength and conditioning programs of four Johns Hopkins University sports.

Shultz got his start in coaching at Loyola College (MD), where he spent four years (1995-98). He diversified the Loyola program by incorporating CSA kickboxing into their traditional workouts. During his collegiate positions, Shultz also spent time working as a personal trainer at Padonia Fitness Center, an elite fitness facility in the Baltimore area. He served as a consultant and kick-boxing instructor for the Baltimore Ravens and trained an elite list of professional athletes, including 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis and former Baltimore Orioles Jerry Hairston and Gary Matthews, Jr. More than a dozen professional lacrosse players also turned to Shultz for training.

Shultz was a forward on the Maryland basketball team from 1991-95, playing in 67 career games. A team captain as a senior, Shultz was a part of Terps teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons. As a prep player, Shultz played at prestigious DeMatha High in Washington, D.C. under legendary coach Morgan Wooten.

Shultz was born on March 10, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland. He majored in kinesiology/physical education at Maryland. Shultz is married to the former Sharon Jacob of Cincinnati and the couple has one son, Jacob.

Byron Storer enters his second season as the assistant special teams coach for Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) in uniform as a fullback for the Buccaneers. Storer's duties include the scouting of all opponent special team units, tape breakdown and the preparation and formulation of scouting reports in preparing for each week's game.

In his first season on with the coaching staff in 2010, Storer worked under former Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Rich Bisaccia with a special teams unit that has, since 2002, been one of the most successful in team history. In 2010, WR Micheal Spurlock recorded three kickoff returns that ranked in the top 10 in Buccaneers history at 69, 79, and 89 yards, with the last going for a touchdown. With his 1,129 kickoff return yards on 44 returns (25.7 avg), Spurlock finished with the second-most kickoff return yards in a single season in team history. K Connor Barth was also a consistent performer, converting 23-of-28 field goals attempts and all 36 of his extra point attempts.

Storer originally came to Tampa Bay as an undrafted free agent from the University of California on May 3, 2007. Over three seasons, he saw action in 16 games, including six starts, while also contributing on special teams. He sustained a career-ending injury in 2008, but his ability to work with his fellow players earned him a role on the coaching staff.

Originally a walk-on for the Golden Bears, Storer earned a scholarship and became a starter for the Cal squad while also making a name for himself on special teams, where he was a three-time All-Conference selection.

Storer was born on May 1, 1984 in Modesto, California and currently resides in Tampa.

1ST NFL SEASON: 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Grady Stretz enters his first season in the NFL and first with the Buccaneers in 2011, working as co-defensive line coach alongside Keith Millard.

Stretz will specialize in the running game and comes to Tampa Bay after 15 seasons coaching collegiately. Most recently, he spent five seasons (2006-10) as the defensive line coach at Arizona State. In 2010, he helped the Sun Devils to a 16th-place ranking nationally in rush defense (119.7 ypg), which led the Pac-10, and an 8th-place ranking nationally in tackles for loss, averaging 7.4 per game, for second in the Pac-10.

Prior to his tenure at Arizona State, Stretz spent eight years at the University of New Mexico, where he coached the defensive line (1998-02) and both safeties and specials teams units (2003-05). While Stretz was with the Lobos, the team was one of only three schools to finish in the top 30 nationally in total defense in six of the previous seven seasons.

Stretz began his coaching career at UCLA, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant (1996-97) working with defensive ends, linebackers and special teams after finishing his playing career. As a four-year letter winner with the Bruins, he was a member of the 1993 Rose Bowl team that finished the season ranked 17th nationally. During his senior season (1995), Stretz earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 Conference accolades at defensive tackle. He also had the distinction of being named CBS Player of the Game versus Washington State in which he earned the Chevrolet Scholarship Award. After graduating, Stretz spent some time in camp with the New York Giants, where he signed as a rookie free agent in 1996.

A native of Tempe, Arizona, Stretz currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Sarah, and children, Maddox and Makenna.

Alex Van Pelt enters his second season with Tampa Bay as the quarterbacks coach after spending the previous four seasons (2006-09) on the staff of the Buffalo Bills.

Van Pelt found great success in his first year working with the young quarterbacks in Tampa Bay. Nowhere was his influence more noticeable than in the case of second-year player Josh Freeman. Freeman showed incredible maturation and improvement in his first full season as a starter, finishing the year as the sixth-ranked passer in the league while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, putting him at ninth for the best touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history. Freeman became the first quarterback under the age of 23 to lead his team to a 10-win season since Pittsburgh Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger in 2004, with five of his victories being fourth-quarter comebacks. Despite working with rookie receivers and an offensive line that featured eight different starting lineups throughout the season due to injury, Freeman piloted his team with enough success to be recognized twice as FedEx Air Player of the Week and twice as NFC Offensive Player of the Week.

Van Pelt entered the 2009 season as the Bills quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in September. He originally joined the Bills as offensive quality control coach in 2006 and worked in that capacity for two seasons before being elevated to quarterbacks coach in 2008.

In his only season as offensive coordinator, Van Pelt led an offense that featured former backup RB Fred Jackson. The third-year pro rushed for a career-high 1,062 yards on 237 attempts (4.5 avg.) with two touchdowns in Van Pelt's offense while also hauling in a career-high 46 receptions, good for second on the team, for 371 yards and two touchdowns. His 1,062 rushing yards ranked ninth in the AFC and his 1,433 total yards from scrimmage ranked 10th in the NFL and sixth in the AFC.

During his time as quarterbacks coach, he assisted in the development of QB Trent Edwards. Under the direction of Van Pelt, Edwards posted a 65.5 completion percentage to rank sixth in the NFL in 2008 as well second all-time in Bills history for a single season. Edwards also recorded a fourth-quarter passer rating of 106.3 to rank third in the NFL that season.

Van Pelt joined the Bills in 2006 after spending the winter of 2006 as the quarterbacks coach/pass coordinator for the University at Buffalo. He also volunteered with the Bills in 2005 as an offensive quality control coach after spending the 2005 NFL Europe season as the Frankfurt Galaxy's quarterbacks coach where he was responsible for the offensive play-calling. After his retirement from the NFL in 2003, he spent two seasons as the color analyst for the Buffalo Bills Radio Network.

Van Pelt was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the eighth round of the 1993 NFL Draft and later signed with Buffalo as a free agent in 1995. He spent his entire career as a member of the Bills and played in 31 games with 11 starts while amassing 2,985 yards passing and 16 touchdowns.

A four-year starter at the University of Pittsburgh, Van Pelt holds school records for most career passing yards (11,267), career completions (867) and career attempts (1,503). He became only the fifth player to throw for 2,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

Van Pelt and his wife Brooke have two daughters, Payton Dale and Katherine Paige, and one son, Jack MacGregor.

Eric Yarber begins his second season with Tampa Bay and fifth season in the NFL overall in 2011, working as the wide receivers coach for a promising young unit.

In Yarber's first season with the Buccaneers in 2010, he guided a receiving corps of unheralded young players, four of the seven being rookies, to one of the most successful turnarounds in franchise history. Yarber was charged with the development of two Tampa Bay draft picks, second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams.

Under Yarber's direction, Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was growing to be an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to the Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State.

While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive quality control coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV.

His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

Yarber was selected by the Washington Redskins as a 12th-round pick in the 1986 NFL Draft and spent three seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner. He was part of the Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988.

At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year, catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches.

Yarber graduated from the University of Idaho in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in general studies with an emphasis in criminal justice. He and his wife, Michele, have two sons, Robert and Kameryon.

DENNIS HICKEY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his 16th season with the Buccaneers overall and first as the director of player personnel, Dennis Hickey has helped lead the Buccaneers to nine winning seasons, four division titles and one Super Bowl championship during his 15-year tenure.

Hickey, who spent the last six seasons as director of college scouting has been responsible for coordinating a staff of area scouts and managing the compilation of information on college players which has proven to be invaluable during the Buccaneers draft process. In addition to these duties, he will now also oversee the Pro Personnel Department.

Hickey worked side-by-side with General Manager Mark Dominik in constructing another well regarded draft class that saw the Buccaneers select DE Adrian Clayborn, DE Da'Quan Bowers, LB Mason Foster, TE Luke Stocker and S Ahmad Black in the 2011 NFL Draft.

In 2010 Hickey was instrumental in bringing in a much lauded draft class that proved itself on the field with seven of the nine picks recording at least one start. WR Mike Williams, a fourth-round selection, started all 16 games his rookie season, leading all rookie receivers in the league in receptions (65, second on the team), yards (964, first on the team) and receiving touchdowns (11, single-season team record). Williams was a finalist for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and finished second in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. On defense, seventh-round pick Cody Grimm established himself as the team's starting free safety, finishing the season with 61 tackles, two passes defended and two interceptions—one returned for a touchdown—before a late-season injury ended his rookie campaign. DT Gerald McCoy and WR Arrelious Benn also made major contributions to the team before their seasons were cut short due to injury.

In addition to the draft class, Hickey helped find and bring talented rookies C/G Ted Larsen and RB LeGarrette Blount, among others, to Tampa Bay. Larsen, originally a sixth-round by New England in the 2010 draft, started all 11 games in which he played, bolstering an offensive line that featured eight different starting lineups throughout the season. Blount, an undrafted rookie free agent acquired off waivers from Tennessee, became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to record a 1,000+-yard season when he finished with 1,007 yards, despite starting only seven games, and was nominated for the NFL's Rookie of the Week award on five occasions.

With Hickey's assistance, the 2009 draft was highlighted by the addition of first-round selection QB Josh Freeman. Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records in touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games. The third round of last year's draft produced DT Roy Miller who proved to be a solid contributor along the defensive line. Miller finished the season tied for third among defensive linemen with 54 tackles while adding two sacks. Perhaps the steal of the draft came in the seventh round with the selection of WR Sammie Stroughter. Stroughter ranked third on the team with 31 receptions for 334 yards and one touchdown while adding a kickoff return for a touchdown.

The 2008 draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams and has since moved into a starting role. The Buccaneers also procured talent through the signing of undrafted rookie free agents RB/KR Clifton Smith and CB Elbert Mack. Smith was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as the kick returner and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro kick returner while Mack appeared in 15 games in the secondary and on special teams where he ranked fourth on the team with 12 special teams stops.

In 2007, Hickey helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams, who led all NFL rookies with six sacks, and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season, including G Davin Joseph, who has since developed into one of the NFL's best guards while earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season.

Prior to his promotion to director of college scouting, Hickey was instrumental in the scouting of LB Barrett Ruud in 2005 and K Martin Gramatica in 1999 as a college scout for the Buccaneers from 2003-09. Ruud has established himself as a cornerstone of the Buccaneers defense while playing at a very high level the past three seasons (2007-09) and leading the team in tackles all three years. Gramatica, a Pro Bowl selection in 2000, ranks as the Buccaneers all-time leading scorer and his 137 field goals is tops in team history.

As a college scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey oversaw all scouting efforts in the Midwestern states for the team. Hickey was a member of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Before assuming his role as a scout for Tampa Bay, Hickey spent the 1996-97 seasons as a pro personnel assistant in Tampa Bay's scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hickey spent two years (1994-95) as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was responsible for recruiting in the state of Texas.

Hickey played collegiately at Coffeyville Community College and was a three-year starter and captain at the University of Tulsa, where he was also named an academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. They live in Tampa.

SHELTON QUARLES

COORDINATOR OF PRO SCOUTING

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles enters first season as coordinator of pro scouting, after working four seasons as a pro scout for Tampa Bay.

In his new role, Quarles is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts and evaluation of all pro leagues, free agents and trade prospects.

During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. This past season, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record while helping find multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and remains as the only player in team history to record a touchdown and a safety. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. This past offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Currently, Quarles serves on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (September 2009-present) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading.

An avid golfer, in the Spring of 2009 Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles is married to Damaris and the couple resides in Tampa with their daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio.

MIKE GREENBERG
COORDINATOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mike Greenberg enters his second season with the Buccaneers and first as coordinator of football administration after working as player personnel assistant last season.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Mark Dominik on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

Greenberg joined the Buccaneers after working with the N.Y. Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football Leagues Management Council and as a summer associate at Jspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and with a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law in 2010. He is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey and lives in Tampa.

ROB MCCARTNEY
PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Rob McCartney enters his first season with the Buccaneers as pro personnel assistant.

McCartney will assist Coordinator of Pro Scouting Shelton Quarles with advance scouting of Buccaneer opponents, as well as organizing player workouts and evaluation of all pro leagues.

McCartney comes to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the Player Personnel Department from 2006-08. He also worked as a student assistant football coach for the South Carolina Gamecocks where he assisted in week-to-week game plan development with the defensive staff.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. He is single and lives in Tampa.

In 2011, Jim Abrams enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers as a college scout after being elevated to national scout in 2006. In 2007, Abrams helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. He joined the Buccaneers after spending 13 years with the San Francisco 49ers. He is responsible for scouting the entire country with an emphasis on the western region.

The 2010 draft was one of the most highly touted for the Buccaneers. First-round pick DT Gerald McCoy recorded 43 tackles, 3.0 sacks, six TFL, 17 quarterback pressures, five passes defended and one forced fumble in the 13 games he started before sustaining a season-ending injury. The receiving corps was given a huge boost from second-round pick WR Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick WR Mike Williams. Williams led the team in receiving, as well as leading all league rookie wideouts in all major receiving categories and finished second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting. Tampa Bay continued to find gems in the late rounds, with seventh-round selections S Cody Grimm, LB Dekoda Watson and FB/TE Erik Lorig all playing important roles and recording starts.

In 2009, the Buccaneers' draft was highlighted by first-round selection QB Josh Freeman, who led all rookie quarterbacks with a 54.5 completion percentage. DT Roy Miller, a third-round selection, was a solid contributor along the defensive line, while ranking tied for third among defensive linemen with 54 tackles. Seventh-round selection WR Sammie Stroughter also had a strong rookie campaign, ranking third on the team with 31 receptions while also returning a kickoff for a touchdown.

The 2008 draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams and has since moved into a starting role. The Buccaneers also signed undrafted rookie free agent RB Clifton Smith, who was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as the kick returner and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro kick returner.

In 2007, Abrams helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers.

The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11).

Abrams spent his first two seasons (1992-93) with the 49ers as a scouting assistant before spending the next seven seasons (1994-00) as a regional scout. He later spent four years (2001-04) as a national scout for the 49ers.

A 1987 graduate of Kent State, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). He served as a linebackers coaching assistant at all three schools.

Born in Warren, Ohio, Abrams attended McAteer High School in San Francisco before attending City College of San Francisco (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent State (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Thousand Oaks, California, with their sons Aleksandr James and Sedrick Jameson.

ANDRE FORDE

COLLEGE SCOUT

Andre Forde enters his third season with the Buccaneers as a college personnel assistant. Forde assists in evaluating personnel and college highlight tapes, advance scouting and data maintenance.

Prior to beginning with the Buccaneers, Forde served as varsity wide receivers coach for Coral Glades High School, and, before that, was owner of Men of Valor Football and Speed Training, which provides individualized football training with the focus on speed and football development.

Forde graduated with a B.A. in sociology from the University of Buffalo in New York in 2003. He was a four-year letterman at wide receiver and kick returner at the University of Buffalo, where he was a MAC Scholar Athlete every season. Forde played wide receiver for the Tulsa Talons of the AFL in 2006 and 2007, and spent time in the NFL with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts as well as the Amsterdam Admirals with NFL Europe.

Forde and his wife Patrice reside in Tampa with their three children, Hannah, Jeremiah and Isaiah.

TONY HARDIE

COMBINE SCOUT

Tony Hardie enters his first season with the Buccaneers as combine scout. Hardie's focus is on the NFL combine and working with the NFL in selecting invitees to the annual event.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hardie worked on the football staffs at Northwestern University (2010-11) and at the University of Chicago (2007-09).

Hardie served as the director of defensive quality control and defensive quality control/player personnel assistant with the Wildcats under Buccaneers current College Scout Bill Rees and held numerous positions on the Chicago staff, including cornerbacks coach, video coordinator, recruiter and defensive assistant. This past season, he helped guide Northwestern to an appearance in the TicketCity Bowl.

Hardie graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Business in finance in 2007. He is single and resides in Tampa.

BRIAN HUDSPETH

COLLEGE SCOUT

Brian Hudspeth enters his third season as a college scout with the Buccaneers in 2011 and his 11th season overall in the NFL. He is currently responsible for scouting a portion of the southern United States for Tampa Bay, including Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas and selected schools in Arkansas and Tennessee.

Hudspeth spent five seasons (2004-08) with the Houston Texans prior to joining the Buccaneers. He served as a college scout from 2006-08 covering the Southeast and Southwest regions while cross checking the Mid-Atlantic. Prior to his appointment to that position, he served as a pro and college scouting assistant for Houston from 2004-05. Hudspeth joined the Texans after working for the Atlanta Falcons in player personnel from 2001-04. He filled various roles for the Falcons, including player personnel/football systems analyst in 2003-04, scouting assistant in 2002 and scouting intern in 2001.

Before joining the NFL, Hudspeth served on the football operations staff at the University of Tennessee from 1998-2001. He was a graduate assistant on the 1998 Volunteers staff that won the first-ever BCS National Championship, 1998 SEC Championship vs. Mississippi State and 1999 Fiesta Bowl over Florida State with a perfect 13-0 record. As a member of the Volunteers, Hudspeth was also a part of the 2000 Fiesta Bowl vs. Nebraska and 2001 Cotton Bowl vs. Kansas State. Hudspeth arrived at Tennessee after spending the 1996-97 seasons as a student assistant coach at Petal (Mississippi) High School.

Hudspeth earned his Masters of Science degree from the University of Tennessee in 1999 and Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1997. The New Albany, Mississippi native is single and resides in Tampa.

BYRON KIEFER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Byron Kiefer enters his fifth season as a college scout and seventh season overall in Tampa Bay's personnel department in 2010. This is his third season scouting the southeast portion of the United States for the Buccaneers and he has been a part of two NFC South division championships with Tampa Bay (2005 and 2007).

Previously, Kiefer was the Buccaneers' National Football Scouting representative, in which his focus was scouting players in the Southeast as well as working with the NFL combine, where he helped the NFL in selecting invitees to the annual combine.

He began his career with the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2005. As a pro personnel assistant, Kiefer assisted in daily transactions and coordinated player tryouts. He also assisted in scouting other pro leagues, including NFL Europa, CFL and AFL.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kiefer worked in the University of South Florida football office during the 2003 season, assisting with football operations and recruiting. He also worked as a trade support associate at Raymond James Financial from 2003-2005.

Kiefer graduated from Mercer University in 2003. He was a letterman pitcher at Mercer after also pitching at St. Petersburg College. Kiefer and his wife, Mirela, live in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Tony Kinkela enters his third season overall with the Buccaneers and his first as a college scout. Kinkela is responsible for scouting the Northwest region of the United States after spending the past two seasons as Tampa Bay's combine scout, focusing on the NFL combine and working with the NFL in selecting invitees to the annual event.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent three seasons as the Director of Football Operations for the Tulane Green Wave from 2006-08.

During the 2004 and 2005 campaigns, Kinkela was the assistant director of football operations at Washington State. He also served as the assistant to the recruiting coordinator during the same period, coordinating on campus official and unofficial visits and oversaw the recruiting film system. As a member of the Cougars' staff, Kinkela was a part of Washington State's 2003 Rose Bowl and Holiday Bowl teams, and the 2001 Sun Bowl squad.

As a student at WSU, Kinkela served as a student assistant for the football team from 2001-04, and was a student representative for the NCAA Peer Review Board from 2001-02. A native of Graham, Washington, he received his bachelor's degree in sport management from Washington State in 2004. Kinkela resides in Tampa and is engaged to be married next spring.

Jared Kirksey enters his second season with Tampa Bay as a college scout in 2011.

Kirksey assists in the organization of the Buccaneers area scouts, including monitoring reports and serving as a liaison between the scouts and the personnel department while also providing in-house evaluations on college prospects. Additionally, Kirksey coordinates pre-draft visits and the organization of college free agents and rookie mini-camp.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kirksey spent two years with the Houston Texans where he served as the College and Pro Scouting Intern. During his time with the Texans, Kirksey was in charge of evaluating specialists (punters, kickers, long snappers) from all 32 teams around the league, among other numerous duties. Kirksey also worked closely with Texans General Manager Rick Smith and Director of Personnel Brian Gardner in evaluating free agents and the status of the organization.

Kirksey also played collegiately at the University of Central Florida as a senior in 2007 after transferring from St. John's River Community College.

Kirksey was born on July 25, 1985 in Gainesville, Florida. His father, Larry, currently serves as the wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans.

BILL REES
COLLEGE SCOUT

Bill Rees enters his first season with Tampa Bay in 2011 as a college scout, having spent the previous two years with Northwestern University while also working the past two offseasons as an outside consultant to the Buccaneers for the NFL Draft.

Last season as the Wildcats coordinator of player personnel/assistant director of football operations, Rees was in charge of coordinating the teams day-to-day recruiting efforts and in 2009 worked as the special teams quality control assistant.

Prior to his time at Northwestern, Rees was a veteran of 15 years in the NFL, where he served as a scout for the Kansas City Chiefs (1994-97), the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears (1997-2001), the Director of College Scouting (2001-03) and the Director of Player Personnel (2003-04) for the San Francisco 49ers, the Director of Player Personnel/College Scouting for the Cleveland Browns (2004-08) and a Pro and College Scout for the Chiefs (2008-09).

Before entering the NFL ranks, Rees spent 15 years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for UCLA from 1979-94. He began his career at Northwestern as a graduate assistant in 1976-77 before serving one year as an assistant coach for the Wildcats in 1978.

Rees is a 1976 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned a master's degree in education administration from Northwestern in 1977. Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children: Danny, a graduate of UCLA where he was a two-year letterman as a punter/holder; Meghan, a senior at Miami (Ohio); and Tommy, a sophomore quarterback at Notre Dame.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Justin Sheridan enters his sixth season with Tampa Bay in 2011 and second as a college scout, having spent the previous time as a pro scout with the club. He is responsible for scouting collegiate players in the Midwest and parts of the Northeast.

Sheridan joined the Buccaneer staff in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant before being promoted to pro scout in 2008. As a pro scout, he was responsible for the evaluation of player personnel and scouting report preparation for Buccaneer opponents. He also monitored NFL transactions and assisted with the recruiting and signing of NFL free agents. He was part of the Buccaneers NFC South championship in 2007.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Sheridan spent two seasons as the director of football operations at Northwestern University, from March 2004 to June 2006. In his role, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, serving as a liaison to the athletic department, business office, academic services, compliance and NFL personnel, among others.

Sheridan originally joined the NU staff as a recruiting assistant in July 2001 before being promoted to Assistant Director of Football Operations in February 2003.

Sheridan worked as the assistant director of football operations at University of Pennsylvania before joining Northwestern's staff. He also worked as an Assistant Coach at Western Maryland College from May 1999 to December 2000.

A native of Ebensburg, PA, Sheridan graduated from Western Maryland College (which is now known as McDaniel College) with his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in accounting. At WMC, he was a four-year letterwinner, playing on two Centennial Conference championship teams.

Sheridan and his wife, Kristen, live in Vernon Hills, Illinois with their two sons, Payton and Brooks.

Seth Turner enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers in 2011 and seventh year as a college scout. Turner is responsible for scouting the Midwest region of the United States after spending four seasons as Tampa Bay's national combine scout. During his time with the Buccaneers, Turner has been part of five playoff appearances, three division titles and one Super Bowl championship.

The 2010 draft was one of the most highly touted for the Buccaneers, featuring DT Gerald McCoy, DT Brian Price, WR Arrelious Benn, CB Myron Lewis and WR Mike Williams. Williams led the team in receiving, as well as leading all league rookie wideouts in all major receiving categories and finished second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting. Tampa Bay also found productive players in the late rounds, with seventh-round selections S Cody Grimm, LB Dekoda Watson and FB/TE Erik Lorig all playing important roles and recording starts throughout the season.

QB Josh Freeman was the highlight of the 2009 draft as the Buccaneers' first-round selection. Freeman finished his rookie campaign with a completion percentage of 54.5, placing him as the leader among rookie quarterbacks. The 2009 draft also produced third-round selection DT Roy Miller and seventh-round selection WR Sammie Stroughter. Miller was a solid contributor along the defensive line and ranked tied for third on the team with 54 tackles. Stroughter finished the season with one kickoff return for a touchdown and ranked third on the team with 31 receptions.

The 2008 draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams and has since moved into a starting role. The Buccaneers also signed undrafted rookie free agent RB Clifton Smith, who was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as the kick returner and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro kick returner.

In 2007, Turner helped assemble a draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. He also helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

The 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11).

Prior to scouting the Midwest, Turner spent four years as Tampa Bay's scout for the annual NFL combine as well as a scout for the southeastern United States. In 2002, Turner was a part of the Buccaneers first Super Bowl championship, a 48-21 victory against Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. In that role, he assisted in the evaluation of professional free agents and draft-eligible college players. He also served as one of Tampa Bay's representatives at the 2001 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a B.S. in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's in sport management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker, garnering third-team all-conference honors in 1996 as a senior.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kansas, lives in Columbia, Missouri with his wife, Ariana, and their three children: sons, Graham and Heath, and daughter, Belen.

Mike Yowarsky enters his second year in his second stint as a college scout for the Buccaneers, after spending the previous five seasons as the eastern region director of college scouting with the Seattle Seahawks.

Yowarsky is entering his 16th overall season on Tampa Bay's scouting staff, having spent another 14 seasons with the team as a college scout from 1991-04.

In his first stint with Tampa Bay, Yowarsky handled all scouting efforts of the southeast portion of the United States. Yowarsky's contributions proved vital in 2002, as the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title in team history with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Yowarsky originally joined the Buccaneers in 1991 after spending the previous year as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Head Coach Steve Spurrier.

Prior to his time at Florida, Yowarsky spent 1989 as a teacher in Cleveland, Tennessee. From 1984-1985, he was a graduate assistant at Kansas and then served as a defensive assistant for the Jayhawks from 1986-88. Yowarsky taught in the Knoxville school system from 1983-84.

Yowarsky earned a Bachelor's Degree in secondary education from Tennessee, and his Master's in athletic administration and sports psychology from Kansas.

Mike has two daughters, Maclain and Bridger.

ERIC VANCE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Eric Vance enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers as director of player development in 2011. Vance, a former safety with Tampa Bay from 1998-01, serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches and the community.

Vance's responsibilities include facilitating the league's personal conduct policy and implementing Buccaneer University, which involves helping players with continuing education, financial education, career transition and other off-field issues. He is also the main liaison between the players and the club's community relations department, encouraging player involvement in charities and community activities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Vance spent time as a financial advisor with Raymond James Financial and as a teacher at Robinson High School in Tampa. In 2005, he was named the Ida S. Baker Distinguished Minority Educator of the Year.

Vance spent four seasons (1998-01) with the Buccaneers, playing in 33 games with one start. He also spent time with the Indianapolis Colts and San Diego Chargers after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 1997.

Vance graduated from Vanderbilt University with a double major in mathematics and secondary education. He was also a four-year starter, along with a team captain. He also earned his Master's in Educational Leadership from the University of South Florida.

Vance and his wife, Inika, reside in Tampa with daughter, Jalyn, and son, Jordan.

CHRIS WELLS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Chris Wells returns to the Buccaneers in 2011 for his ninth season overall and third as director of football technology.

Wells is responsible for the development and maintenance of all football-related software and technology. He works closely with the front office, scouting department, trainers and coaching staff in the implementation of the latest technology and football-related applications. Additionally, Wells serves as a liaison between the information technology department and football operations, helping to troubleshoot a variety of technological issues on a continual basis.

Wells started with the Buccaneers in 2003 as a web engineer before serving as the football software engineer for four years from 2005-08.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent four years (2000-03) with Evolutions Healthcare Systems, developing their operational technology. From 1997-2000, Wells worked with Dyna Software, building property management software.

Wells is married to Traci and the couple has two daughters, Emily and Elisabeth.

TODD TORISCELLI

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE & PERFORMANCE

Todd Toriscelli enters his 15th season with the Buccaneers in 2011 and second as director of sports medicine and performance after serving as head athletic trainer for 13 seasons. He has been a part of four division championships during his tenure as well as the Buccaneer's first Super Bowl title, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Toriscelli coordinates the team's daily medical coverage including all performance parameters such as physical development and nutrition. Toriscelli and his staff have conducted research projects on dehydration and exercise in the heat in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute, and he recently co-authored an article in the International Journal of Sports Medicine. He has also published several other articles and lectured on topics related to sports medicine. Most recently, Toriscelli was named to the NFL Health and Safety Panel in May of 2011.

Toriscelli and his staff were instrumental in the rehabilitation and treatment of RB Carnell Williams following two career-threatening knee injuries that he suffered in 2007 and 2008. Williams' miraculous return to the field culminated with an impressive performance in 2009 as Williams went on to play in all 16 games for the first time in his career while leading the team with 823 rushing yards. In 2010, Williams again played in each of the 16 games.

Prior to coming to Tampa Bay, Toriscelli spent a combined seven years as a head trainer for Stanford, Miami (FL) and Kansas State universities. While with Stanford in 1995 and 1996, Toriscelli also served as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli holds a bachelor's degree in Health Education and minors in Biological Science and Athletic Training from Ohio University (1984) and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from the University of North Carolina (1985). In 2009 he was selected as a Distinguished Alumnus by the Ohio University School of Health Sciences and Professions.

Toriscelli and his wife, Chris, reside in Tampa with their son, Shane, and daughter, Jenna.

SHANNON MERRICK

DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION

Shannon Merrick enters his eighth season as the Buccaneers' Director of Rehabilitation in 2011. Merrick works directly with Director of Sports Medicine and Performance Todd Toriscelli to treat and rehabilitate injured Buccaneer players. In his first six seasons with the club, Merrick has been a part of two NFC South division championships.

Merrick joined the Buccaneers after spending eight years as a site coordinator/rehabilitation director for HealthSouth in Melbourne, Florida. Prior to his appointment at HealthSouth, Merrick held athletic training internships at the University of Notre Dame (1989-1990) and Indianapolis Colts (1988-89). While an undergraduate at Purdue University, he also served as a student athletic trainer from 1985-89.

Along with Tampa Bay's training staff, he has been involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Merrick earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training, pre-physical therapy from Purdue in 1990, and a master's degree in physical therapy from Washington University School of Medicine (St. Louis, MO) in 1992.

A native of Goshen, Indiana, Merrick resides in Tampa with his daughter Elani and sons Joshua and Jack.

PAT JERNIGAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Pat Jernigan begins his 10th season as the Buccaneers' assistant athletic trainer in 2011. During his second season with the organization in 2002, Jernigan helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title. Jernigan has also been a part of three NFC South division titles in his first eight seasons with the club.

Jernigan, who has earned Performance Enhancement Specialists (PES) certification, is responsible for assisting Director of Sports Medicine and Performance Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of injured players.

He spent two seasons (2000-01) as Tampa Bay's seasonal intern and also served as the Buccaneers' intern during training camp from 1998-2000. Along with Tampa Bay's training staff, he has also been involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

Jernigan graduated from Valdosta State (GA) in 1998 with a bachelor's of science degree in sports medicine and earned a master's degree in health science from Middle Tennessee State University in 2000. While pursuing his master's degree at MTSU, he worked as an athletic trainer for both the football and baseball teams.

A native of Atlanta, Jernigan enjoys golfing, jogging and weightlifting. Jernigan and his wife Krisden live in Tampa with their daughter, Maier.

KEVIN LUHRS

TEAM NUTRITIONIST

Kevin Luhrs enters his second season as the team nutritionist with the Buccaneers in 2011. As a Registered and Licensed Dietitian, along with Strength and Conditioning Specialist Certification, his duties include the coordination of all meals and snacks for all players. In addition, Luhrs does one-on-one diet counseling with both players and staff members and is heavily involved in player rehydration and weight management programs.

His secondary duties involve being an assistant strength and conditioning coach under the direction of Head Strength and Condition Coach Kurtis Shultz.

Luhrs previously interned with the Baptist Health System in San Antonio, Texas where he worked with hospital patients on medical nutrition therapy, while also gaining experience with community programs and food service management. Luhrs also worked as a volunteer nutritionist at the University of Nebraska in 2009 where he assisted the director of sports nutrition with various tasks that included body composition, weekly news blogs and nutrient analysis projects.

Luhrs was a defensive lineman for the University of Nebraska from 2003-2007, during which time he was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll eight times. Luhrs also served as a student-coach for the Cornhuskers in 2007. He graduated with a degree in Education and Human Sciences with a concentration in Nutritional Science and Dietetics in December 2007.

Luhrs was born on September 29, 1984 in Omaha, Nebraska and currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Jacqueline.

DR. JOHN ZVIJAC

HEAD TEAM ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON

Dr. John Zvijac enters his 14th season as head team orthopedic surgeon for the Buccaneers in 2011.

Zvijac was instrumental as the Buccaneers claimed their first Super Bowl title in 2002 against the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, in addition to capturing three NFC South division titles in the past eight seasons. Overall, he has been a part of four division titles with the Buccaneers.

Dr. Zvijac is a professor at the University of Miami School of Education, Department of Exercise Science and Sports Medicine, as well as associate professor School of Medicine Department of Orthopaedics at Florida International University and professor in Exercise Science and Sports Science at Florida International University. In addition, he is a member of the Athletic Training Education Advisory Board at Florida International University. He is in private practice at the UHZ Sports Medicine Institute in Coral Gables.

Zvijac provides medical care for all Miami-Dade County Public High Schools and is also the team physician for the Florida Panthers of the NHL and Florida International University. He is presently the Florida delegate for the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine.

Zvijac graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Medicine and completed his residency at the University of Miami School of Medicine. He also fulfilled an additional year of fellowship training in arthroscopy and sports medicine at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama.

Zvijac resides in Miami with his wife, Gail.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Kevin Elder enters his third season with the Buccaneers as team physician. Dr. Elder is currently Board Certified in Family Practice with Certificate of Added Qualifications in Sports Medicine and has been recognized with a Fellow designation by the American Academy of Family Physicians. He practices as a partner of the HealthPoint Medical Group in South Tampa.

Additionally, Dr. Elder is an Assistant Clinical Professor of Family Medicine for the University of South Florida, teaching medical students and residents while also serving as a voluntary faculty preceptor for the Bayfront Hospital and Morton Plant Mease Family Practice residencies' primary care sports medicine fellowship programs.

His training in sports medicine encompassed the care of athletes of various levels, as well as the treatment of common overuse injuries, fracture casting and management, joint injections and the treatment of many non-operative orthopedic sports medicine problems. Dr. Elder's past experience includes providing medical coverage or team physician responsibilities for professional football, boxing, volleyball, soccer, baseball and hockey teams.

His extensive sports medicine training has led him to volunteer for several community sports medicine events and races in Tampa Bay including volunteering as a team physician for Tampa Catholic High School for seven years.

Dr. Elder has published book chapters and articles related to exercise stress testing and various sports medicine topics. He has also given numerous lectures on sports medicine topics, including wilderness medicine.

Dr. Elder received his undergraduate degree at The Ohio State University and earned his Doctor of Medicine from the Medical University of Ohio/University of Toledo. He served his Family Practice Residency, as well as his Sports Medicine Fellowship, at Bayfront Medical Center in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Dr. Elder is married to Stephanie and the couple has three children: Emma, Liam and Lily.

DAVE LEVY

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Levy begins his 24th season in as the team's video director in 2011. Levy's contributions helped lead the Buccaneers to their first Super Bowl title in 2002, a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. He has also been a part of the Buccaneers three NFC South division titles in the past eight seasons. Overall, Levy has helped guide Tampa Bay to four division titles during his tenure.

Levy was instrumental in the development and layout of the Buccaneers' new training facility at One Buc Place, which opened to rave reviews in 2006. His insight helped create one of the most technologically advanced sports training facilities in the world, providing the coaches and personnel department with a distinct advantage.

His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees Tampa Bay's game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining digital game footage on draft-eligible players. He was hired by the Buccaneers after previously serving as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department.

A native of Pittsburgh, Levy went to high school in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He lives in New Tampa with sons Andrew, Garrett and Bryce.

CHRIS BRYAN

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Chris Bryan enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers in 2011 and sixth as assistant video director. He assists video director Dave Levy in the shooting and duplicating of games and practices while also editing and producing various other teaching and instructional videos for the coaching staff.

In 2002, Bryan was part of a Buccaneers staff that claimed a Super Bowl XXXVII victory over the Oakland Raiders. During his time with the club, Bryan has been a part of three NFC South division titles.

Bryan, a native of St. Petersburg, spent his first six seasons with the Buccaneers as a video assistant from 2000-2005. He is single and resides in St. Petersburg.

JAMES SORENSON

HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

James Sorenson, who first started working in the NFL in 1986, is in his sixth season as Head Equipment Manager with the Buccaneers. In 2007, Sorenson helped guide the Buccaneers to their third NFC South division title.

Sorenson is responsible for distributing all equipment and apparel to Buccaneers players and coaches, along with the purchase and inventory of all team equipment. He also maintains the locker room and oversees the transportation of the team's equipment for all home and away games.

Sorenson spent eight seasons as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2005. He began his career in the NFL in 1986 as a ball boy with the Minnesota Vikings before serving as equipment assistant with the team from 1991-1997.

Sorenson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biomedical Science from St. Cloud State in 1998. He and his wife, Alaina, live in Tampa with their daughter.

MIKE MYRICK

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Mike Myrick enters his third season as assistant equipment manager in 2011 and ninth season overall with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers equipment staff. In that time, he has been a part of two Buccaneers' NFC South Division titles.

Myrick got his start in the NFL in 1992, working training camps with the Atlanta Falcons as a ball boy. That eventually led to his hire as an assistant equipment manager with the Falcons in 1997. Myrick has also spent time with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe from 2000-04 as an assistant and head equipment manager.

Myrick's responsibilities include assisting head equipment manager Jim Sorenson with all department duties. Specializing in helmets and shoulder pads, he has a weekly maintenance routine that includes changing helmets to ensure they provide the best possible protection while keeping a high-gloss shine.

Myrick is a Florida native and resides in Wesley Chapel with his wife Angie and three children: Hannah, Anna and Michael Jr.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Originally entered the league as a third-round selection (66th overall) by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Is the only player in NFL history to have 26 sacks and 40 interceptions in his career.
- His 26 career sacks are most by a cornerback in NFL history and first among all active NFL defensive backs.
- Only defensive back in the NFL since the merger (1970) to start each of his team's games for 11 consecutive seasons.
- Has started 183 consecutive games, the most by a cornerback in NFL history.
- His 183 consecutive starts are also the most in the NFL among all active defenders and second among all active players.
- His 11 career touchdowns on fumble/interception returns ranks tied for second in the NFL among all active players and tied for fourth all-time.
- Named to his fifth career All-Pro Team in 2006 (second team). Also earned first-team honors in 2001, 2004 and 2005 and second-team honors in 2002.
- Became first cornerback in NFL history and just seventh player all-time to record 20 career interceptions and 20 career sacks when he posted the 20th sack of his career at Carolina (12/11/05).
- Since joining Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers defense has finished ranked in the Top 10 in the NFL in total defense in 11 of his 14 seasons and in the Top 5 on eight occasions.
- Part of a defense that has ranked in the Top 10 in the NFL in pass defense in 12 of his 14 seasons.
- Became the Buccaneers all-time career interception leader in 2007, surpassing CB Donnie Abraham by intercepting his 32nd career pass vs. Washington (11/25/07).

- Posted a career-high 10 interceptions in 2001, which tied him for first in NFL and also marked a Buccaneers single-season record.
- Has scored 13 regular season touchdowns in his career (seven interception returns, four fumble returns, one return of a deflected punt, and one return of a blocked punt) to lead all defensive players in team history.
- Became first player in team history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in same game during regular season when he twice picked off QB Donovan McNabb (10/22/06).
- His career-high 120 tackles in 2005 surpassed his own team single-season record for most tackles by a cornerback (111 tackles in 2003 and 2004).
- Only cornerback in team history to record four consecutive 100-tackle seasons and six overall.
- His 1,260 tackles are most by a cornerback in team history and rank second overall in team annals.
- Made his 172nd consecutive start vs. New Orleans (10/17/10), surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.
- His 209 career games played rank second in team history, and his 200 career starts rank second in team annals.
- Posted one of the most memorable and dominating defensive performances in NFC Championship Game history, forcing a fumble, posting one sack and sealing the win at Philadelphia (1/19/03) with a 92-yard interception return for a touchdown.
- On two occasions has corralled a team single-game record three interceptions, vs. New Orleans (12/23/01) and at New Orleans (12/4/05).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named a defensive team captain.
- Ranked second on the team with three interceptions on the season.

- x Ranked first on the team with 16 passes defensed.
- x Ranked third on the team with 102 tackles, surpassing the 100-tackle plateau for the sixth time in his career.
- x Made his 172nd consecutive start vs. New Orleans (10/17), surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.
- x Appeared in his 200th career game at Arizona (10/31).
- x Recorded his 40th career interception at San Francisco (11/21).
- x Started his 200th career game in the season finale at New Orleans (1/2).
- x Twin brother, Tiki, was a teammate at Virginia, an All-America running back and a 1997 second-round draft choice (36th overall) of the New York Giants (1997-2006).
- x Along with Tiki, wrote a children's book titled "By My Brother's Side" that was released during the 2004 season. A second book titled "Game Day" was published in the fall of 2005 and a third children's book, "Teammates", was released in the fall of 2006.
- x Filmed a breast cancer awareness public service announcement that aired on Lifetime during National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October 2007. Filmed the PSA to honor his mom Geraldine, a breast cancer survivor.
- x An avid golfer, he has played in seven of the past eight (2004, 2006-2011) Outback Pro Am golf tournaments.
- x Along with Tiki, made a $1 million gift in 2006 to their alma mater, the University of Virginia, at the launch of the University's $3 billion campaign in which the twins served as the emcees for the event.
- x Named to the 2003, 2005 and 2006 All-Interview teams by NFL.com.
- x Named to The Sporting News' 2003 and 2006 NFL's 101 Best Players List.
- x Rated as one of Virginia's top five prospects and shared Male Athlete of the Year honors in the state with brother Tiki.
- x Born Jamael Oronde Barber on April 7, 1975 in Montgomery County, Virginia.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL:

- x Finished Cavalier career with 15 interceptions, third-highest total in school history and just two shy of UVA record (17 by Keith McMeans, 1987-90).
- x Started all 36 Cavalier games and earned All-ACC first-team honors each of three seasons, including two bowl games.
- x Joined twin brother Tiki on all-conference squad as the two became just the third pair of brothers to gain that distinction in the ACC in the same year.
- x Also tabbed as the ACC's Freshman of the Year and was given UVA's Bill Dudley Award recognizing the team's most outstanding first-year player.
- x Graduated with a degree in commerce with a concentration in marketing.
- x Married to Claudia. Couple lives in Tampa with daughters Yammile Rose and Justyce Rosina.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

PRE-1974

TAMPA STADIUM DEDICATED (11/4/67) – Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0 in the first contest played in the facility. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million to build.

FIRST PRESEASON GAME (8/10/68) – Washington defeats Atlanta 16-14 before a crowd of 42,000 in first NFL action at new stadium.

EXPANSION COMMITTEE FORMED (11/68) – Suncoast Pro Football Committee is formed with the purpose of securing an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay. The group functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce formally appoints the West Coast NFL Task Force headed by Tampa businessman J. Leonard Levy.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED FRANCHISE (4/24) – Tampa Bay is awarded the league's 27th franchise. As part of the award, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

MCCLOSKEY SELECTED AS OWNER (10/30) – Philadelphia construction executive Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon declines ownership.

CULVERHOUSE AWARDED OWNERSHIP (12/5) – Hugh F. Culverhouse, a Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had previously declined ownership of the Seattle franchise due to geographic reasons, is awarded the Tampa Bay franchise.

1975

TEAM NICKNAME ANNOUNCED (2/15) – After reviewing over 400 name possibilities, an advisory board announces the team's new nickname will be the Buccaneers.

STADIUM LEASE APPROVED (4/21) – The Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buccaneers for use of Tampa Stadium. Three days later, the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 to approve the lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL LOGO AND COLORS (4/15) – The team unveils a logo designed by Tampa Tribune artist Lamar Sparkman consisting of Florida orange, white and red.

STADIUM EXPANSION BEGINS (7/9) – Ground is broken for the expansion of Tampa Stadium, financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

MCKAY NAMED COACH (10/31) – John McKay leaves the University of Southern California where he had coached four national championship teams, signing a five-year contract to coach the Buccaneers.

BUCS PLACED IN DIVISION (11/4) – Tampa Bay is placed in the AFC West with the understanding that it will switch to the NFC Central the following season.

BUCS WIN FIRST OVERALL SELECTION (12/27) – In a drawing held prior to the Pittsburgh vs. Baltimore playoff game, Bucs owner Hugh Culverhouse is awarded the first pick in the following year's NFL college draft while Seattle receives the initial pick in the veteran allocation draft.

1976

WARNER BUYS LARGE SHARE OF TEAM (2/15) – Cincinnati businessman Marvin L. Warner, president of Warner National Corp. and a longtime friend of Hugh Culverhouse, buys a large share of the team.

VETERAN ALLOCATION DRAFT (3/30) – The Buccaneers stock their roster by adding 39 players through the NFL's veteran allocation draft.

FIRST TRADE ANNOUNCED (4/2) – The Bucs make the first trade in franchise history, acquiring former Heisman Trophy winner QB Steve Spurrier from the San Francisco 49ers for two players and a second-round draft choice.

SELMON DRAFTED (4/8) – Tampa Bay takes Lee Roy Selmon with the first selection in the NFL college draft.

INAUGURAL SEASON BEGINS (7/31) – In the team's first-ever pre-season action, the Bucs lose 26-3 at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams at the L.A. Coliseum. PK Paul Rajecki's 18-yard FG goes down as the first points in team history.

FIRST PRESEASON VICTORY (8/14) – The Buccaneers win their first preseason game, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 17-3 at the Jacksonville Gator Bowl.

REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/12) – Tampa Bay loses its first regular season game 20-0 at Houston.

GREEN SCORES FIRST REGULAR SEASON POINTS (9/26) – In a 14-9 loss to the Buffalo Bills, K Dave Green connects on a 39-yard FG, posting the franchise's first regular season points.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON VICTORY (12/11) – The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for TDs and end 26 games of frustration with their first regular season victory, a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

BACK-TO-BACK WINS (12/18) – Tampa Bay wins its second game in a row and first at home, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 17-7.

TAMPA HOSTS PRO BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Stadium is the site of the 1978 Pro Bowl.

DUBOSE RUNS FOR 100 YARDS (10/15) – RB Jimmy DuBose becomes the first Buc to rush for 100 yards in a game (109 yards on 24 carries) as the Bucs lose on the road to the Giants 17-14.

BUCS REACH .500 (10/22) – Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19 to up its record to 4-4, but injuries ultimately cripple the team during the second half of the season.

CULVERHOUSE BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST (1/3) – Hugh Culverhouse purchases Marvin Warner's minority interest, thereby gaining control of the team.

PEAR BECOMES FIRST PRO BOWL BUC (1/29) – DT Dave Pear becomes the first Buccaneer to play and start in the Pro Bowl.

BUCS JUMP OUT TO HOTTEST START OF SEASON (9/30) – The Buccaneers lay claim to the best record in the league by beating the Bears 17-13 at Chicago and running their record to 5-0, the best start in team history and a franchise record for consecutive victories that would not be matched until 1997.

BELL REACHES 1,000-YARD MARK (11/25) – RB Ricky Bell becomes the first rusher in team history to reach 1,000 yards after compiling 101 yards on the ground in 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings. Bell eventually finishes the season with 1,263 rushing yards.

BUCS CLINCH FIRST-EVER NFC CENTRAL TITLE (12/16) – The Bucs defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 3-0 in a torrential downpour in Tampa to win the NFC Central Division and earn the first-ever playoff berth in team history. Neil O'Donoghue drills a 19-yard field goal for the game's only points as RB Ricky Bell gains 137 yards on the ground.

SELMON NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (12/20) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes first player in team history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Selmon recorded 117 tackles, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and 11 sacks during the 1979 regular season.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST PLAYOFF GAME (12/29) – Led by RB Ricky Bell's 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, the Bucs defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 24-17 in their first-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS FINISH ONE GAME SHORT OF THE SUPER BOWL (1/6) – The team's first playoff season comes to an end as the Bucs lose 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in the NFC Championship Game played in Tampa Stadium.

MCKAY GIVEN CONTRACT EXTENSION (1/7) – Head Coach John McKay is given a five-year contract extension. It is also announced that he will become the team's president upon his retirement from coaching.

SELMON BECOMES SECOND PRO BOWLER (1/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the team's second player to see Pro Bowl action.

TAMPA BAY MAKES PRIME TIME DEBUT (9/11) – The Buccaneers avenge the previous January's NFC Championship Game defeat (9-0) with a 10-9 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Tampa Bay's first-ever appearance on ABC's prime time football series (Thursday night game).

BUCS RUN WILD IN WIN OVER GIANTS (11/2) – Tampa Bay running backs account for a team record 244 rushing yards (later surpassed) en route to a 30-13 victory over the N.Y. Giants.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS ATLANTA, MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE (12/6) – The Buccaneers, led by QB Doug Williams' season-best 336 passing yards, pull out a 24-23 victory over the Atlanta Falcons. The win is Tampa Bay's third in a row and places the team in sole possession of first place in the NFC Central.

BUCS CLINCH SECOND NFC TITLE IN THREE YEARS (12/20) – Tampa Bay wins an exciting showdown in Detroit, besting the Lions 20-17 and securing the NFC Central Division title. WR Kevin House reels in an 84-yard touchdown strike from QB Doug Williams and DT David Logan returns a fumble recovery 21 yards for another Buc score.

BUCS ELIMINATED FROM PLAYOFFS (1/2) – Dallas defeats the Bucs 38-0 at Texas Stadium.

PLAYERS STRIKE ANNOUNCED (9/20) – The NFL Players Association announces the beginning of the union's strike.

LABOR PEACE REACHED (11/16) – After a 57-day strike, the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association announce a settlement.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST MONDAY NIGHT GAME AT HOME (11/29) – After starting off 0-3, Tampa Bay defeats the cross-state rival Miami Dolphins 23-17, marking the first Monday Night victory at Tampa Stadium.

1983

BUCS REACH PLAYOFFS FOR THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS (1/2) – QB Doug Williams leads a fierce rally from a 17-point halftime deficit as K Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal in overtime secures the Buccaneer victory. The team wins five of its last six games, securing each victory in the final minute.

DALLAS ENDS TAMPA BAY'S PLAYOFF HOPES (1/9) – The Dallas Cowboys defeat Tampa Bay 30-17 in the first round of playoffs.

WILDER SETS SINGLE-GAME RECORDS (11/6) – RB James Wilder sets team marks for combined yards (239) and rushing yards (219) in a game, helping the Bucs break into the win column for the first time.

TAMPA HOSTS SUPER BOWL XVIII (1/22) – The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins 38-9 in front of a crowd of 72,920 as Tampa hosts its first Super Bowl.

WILDER RUNS FOR 172 YARDS IN WIN OVER PACKERS (9/30) – RB James Wilder carries the ball a record 43 times for 172 yards in leading Tampa Bay to a 30-27 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers. Wilder eventually goes on to record the best rushing season in Buc history, compiling 1,544 yards and 13 touchdowns on an NFL record 407 carries.

MCKAY ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION (11/5) – Head Coach John McKay announces his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The announcement comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota with the Bucs owning a 4-6 record.

MCKAY'S FINAL GAME (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the N.Y. Jets 41-21 in John McKay's final game as a head coach. He finishes an overall 171-128-9, including a 44-88-1 mark as the Bucs' head coach.

1985

BENNETT NAMED HEAD COACH (1/23) – Hugh Culverhouse names former Atlanta Falcons head coach Leeman Bennett as John McKay's replacement.

SELMON PLAYS IN FINAL PRO BOWL (1/27) – DE Lee Roy Selmon plays in his sixth and final Pro Bowl. A herniated disk, which eventually required surgery, is discovered in his back at the game. The injury later forces Selmon to retire after missing the entire 1985 season.

BUCS RECORD FIRST SHUTOUT SINCE '79 (11/10) – Tampa Bay defeats the St. Louis Cardinals 16-0, marking the team's first shutout since 1979 (vs. Kansas City), and snapping a nine-game losing streak.

SELMON'S JERSEY RETIRED (9/7) – In halftime ceremonies at the season-opener versus San Francisco, six-time Pro Bowler DE Lee Roy Selmon's jersey is retired. Selmon's number 63 becomes the first and only jersey in team history to be retired.

BENNETT FIRED (12/29) – Leeman Bennett is relieved of his position after compiling a 4-28 record as the Bucs' head coach.

PERKINS NAMED HEAD COACH (12/31) – Former Alabama Head Coach Ray Perkins is hired as the Bucs' Head Coach and Vice-President/Football Operations.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED SUPER BOWL XXV (5/20) – Tampa is awarded the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl to be played on January 27, 1991.

BUCS OPEN SEASON WITH ROUT OF ATLANTA (9/13) – QB Steve DeBerg establishes a franchise record with five touchdown passes and the Bucs set marks for most points (48) and largest margin of victory (38) in a 48-10 besting of Atlanta.

STRIKE INTERRUPTS SEASON (10/1) – The NFL Players Association calls for its second work stoppage in six seasons. After a 24-day strike in which replacement players were used in three games, the NFL and Players Union come to an agreement.

TESTAVERDE PASSES FOR 469 YARDS (10/16) – QB Vinny Testaverde passes for the second-highest single-game yardage in franchise history (469) at Indianapolis.

BUCS DEFEAT EVENTUAL AFC CHAMPION BUFFALO (12/4) – Tampa Bay's win over the eventual AFC Champion Buffalo Bills is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS CHICAGO FOR FIRST TIME IN 13 TRIES (10/8) – The Bucs score 28 first half points (second most in team history) to end 12 games of frustration against the Bears before the largest crowd ever at a Bucs game (72,077).

BUCS COMPLETE SEASON SWEEP OF BEARS (11/19) – K Donald Igwebuike's last-second 28-yard field goal completes the first-ever season sweep of Chicago. The win marks the Bucs' first at Soldier Field in ten years (9/30/79).

WR MARK CARRIER FINISHES PRO BOWL SEASON (12/24) – With six catches for 101 yards versus Pittsburgh, WR Mark Carrier caps off a Pro Bowl season in which he set club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

1990

TAMPA BAY JUMPS OUT TO BEST START SINCE '79 (9/30) – After beating the Minnesota Vikings 23-20 in overtime, the Bucs run their record to 3-1.

PERKINS FIRED (12/3) – Head Coach Ray Perkins is relieved of his position after Tampa Bay drops to 5-8. Assistant Head Coach/Receivers Richard Williamson is named interim head coach.

GIANTS WIN SUPER BOWL XXV (1/23) – The N.Y. Giants win Super Bowl XXV in thrilling fashion, beating their in-state rivals the Buffalo Bills 21-19 at Tampa Stadium.

WILLIAMSON NAMED HEAD COACH (2/4) – Gay Culverhouse is announced as the team's new president, Phil Krueger is named general manager and Richard Williamson becomes the full-time head coach.

COBB SETS TEAM RECORD FOR RUSHING TDS IN A GAME (11/20) – RB Reggie Cobb establishes a team mark with three rushing scores in a 30-21 Buccaneer triumph over the Detroit Lions.

SELMON, BELL AND MCKAY HONORED (12/8) – DE Lee Roy Selmon, RB Ricky Bell and Head Coach John McKay are inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

WILLIAMSON FIRED (12/27) – Richard Williamson is relieved as head coach after compiling a 4-15 record.

WYCHE NAMED HEAD COACH (1/10) – Former Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach Sam Wyche is named as Richard Williamson's replacement. Wyche becomes the fifth head coach in Tampa Bay history.

WILLIAMS INDUCTED INTO KREWE OF HONOR (9/6) – QB Doug Williams becomes the third player inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

COBB RECORDS FIFTH-BEST RUSHING SEASON (12/27) – The Bucs defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 7-3 as RB Reggie Cobb caps off the fifth-best rushing performance in team history (1,171 yards).

BUCS SIGN NICKERSON AS AN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (3/18) – Former Pittsburgh Steelers LB Hardy Nickerson signs a three-year contract to become the Buccaneers' first free agent acquisition under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

NICKERSON EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (12/29) – After compiling a team record 214 tackles, Nickerson is voted as the NFC's starting linebacker in the Pro Bowl and later becomes only the second Buccaneer to be named AP All-Pro.

CULVERHOUSE DIES (8/25) – Hugh Culverhouse dies of lung cancer at the age of 75. The team is placed under control of a three-man trust headed by Culverhouse's law partner Steven Story, along with Jack Donlan and Fred Cene.

MCKAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (11/8) – Vice-President/Football Operations Rich McKay is promoted to General Manager.

RHETT RUSHES FOR 192 YARDS (12/4) – RB Errict Rhett records the second-best single-game rushing total in team history when he rambles for 192 yards on 40 carries (third-most in team annals) in a 26-21 victory over the Washington Redskins. Rhett eventually becomes first Buc rookie to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,011).

BUCS SELL OUT SEASON FINALE (12/24) – The Buccaneers are defeated by the Packers 34-19 in front of the first sellout at Tampa Stadium in two years (11/15/92).

BUCCANEERS SOLD TO MALCOLM GLAZER (1/16) – Steven Story announces that, pending NFL approval, the Buccaneers have been sold to Palm Beach investor Malcolm Glazer for the highest price ever paid for a sports franchise.

NFL APPROVES SALE OF TEAM (3/13) – NFL owners unanimously approve Malcolm Glazer's purchase of the Buccaneers one day after the NFL Finance Committee gave its unanimous approval at the Owner's Meetings in Phoenix, AZ.

BUCS SIGN DRAFT PICKS IN RECORD FASHION (5/10) – With the signing of second-round selection S Melvin Johnson, Tampa Bay becomes the quickest team in NFL history to sign all its draft picks.

SALE OF THE TEAM IS FINALIZED (6/30) – Malcolm Glazer officially becomes the team's new owner after the sale of the team is finalized in Charlotte, NC. Bryan and Joel Glazer are named executive vice-presidents.

SELMON INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (7/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first Buccaneer inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame. Selmon is introduced by his brother and former Buc teammate Dewey.

BUCS MOVE INTO SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE (10/15) – K Michael Husted's 51-yard game-winning FG propels Tampa Bay past Minnesota and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. The victory marks the first time since the final day of the 1981 season that the team has been alone in first place.

GRUBER MARKS RECORD START (11/26) – LT Paul Gruber makes his 118th career start, thus surpassing DE Lee Roy Selmon's team record of 117.

RHETT SURPASSES 1,000-YARD MARK (12/3) – RB Errict Rhett goes over 1,000 yards for the second consecutive year to become only the 12th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first two league seasons.

WYCHE IS FIRED (12/27) – The team announces that Sam Wyche will not return as head coach in 1996. Wyche leaves his post with a 23-41 record.

DUNGY NAMED HEAD COACH (1/22) – Minnesota Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy is named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach.

NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) – LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) – Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) – Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) – Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) – LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) – Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Buccaneers, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the Bucs' four-year offer.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sell out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dillfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dillfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdom. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp — earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12 1/2 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears to just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two — giving him 13.5 for the year — as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America of September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions—all in the second half—and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defended.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) – Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franchise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 145,000 square foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams' shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks' ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCAANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway's 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCAANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay's defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com as more than one million votes are cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) – Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team's new 145,155-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 14 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 16,000-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defended to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

BUCS SELECT GAINES ADAMS WITH FOURTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/28) – The Buccaneers draft Clemson DE Gaines Adams with their first selection (fourth overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft. The selection of Adams marks the first time since 1999 that the Buccaneers use their first-round selection on a defensive player. It is also the highest pick Tampa Bay has used on a defensive player since 1990.

BUCS UNVEIL THE LARGEST FLYING NON-US FLAG IN THE NATION (9/6) – The Buccaneers raise their new team flag, which measures over 4,000 square feet, at One Buccaneer Place following the afternoon practice. Buccaneers players and staff watch the flag ascend the 147.5-ft. pole on the west side of the team's headquarters as the team readies for its season-opening game in Seattle. At 80'x50' the flag is the largest flying non-US flag in the nation.

GALLOWAY SURPASSES 10,000 RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – With his 46-yard receiving performance at Detroit, WR Joey Galloway surpasses 10,000 career receiving yards. He becomes the eighth active player and just the 28th player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard plateau.

GARCIA SETS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS RECORD (10/21) – Facing his former team, QB Jeff Garcia completes a single game team-record 18 consecutive completions against the Detroit Lions. Garcia has one of his best outings of the season, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns against the Lions.

GARCIA CONSECUTIVE ATTEMPTS WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION STREAK ENDS AT 197 (10/28) – QB Jeff Garcia begins his career as a Buccaneer by attempting 197 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, besting the previous team record by Brad Johnson, who went 187 consecutive attempts without a pick from 2001-2002. Dating back to the 2006 season, Garcia went 217 attempts without an interception in the regular season, the sixth-longest streak since 2001.

BARBER BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER (11/25) – CB Ronde Barber intercepts his 32nd career pass to move into first place on the team's career interception list. Barber's record-setting pick comes off QB Jason Campbell late in the fourth quarter to help Tampa Bay preserve a 19-13 victory over the Washington Redskins.

CARTER RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK (11/25) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, DE Kevin Carter posts the 100th sack of his career, dropping QB Jason Campbell in a win against the Redskins. Carter becomes the 24th player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau.

BUCS EARN THIRD NFC SOUTH TITLE IN SIX SEASONS (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the Atlanta Falcons 37-3 in Week 15 to earn its third NFC South division title in six seasons. Tampa Bay moves to 5-0 in its division for the first time since 1979 while clinching the sixth division title in team history and fourth since the Glazer family took over in 1995.

BUCS POST FIRST-EVER KICKOFF RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN (12/16) – It took 1,865 kickoff returns, but WR Micheal Spurlock records the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team history on his 90-yard return against the Atlanta Falcons. He is one of 140 players to have returned a kickoff for the Buccaneers. The historic return helps propel the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

GRAHAM SETS TEAM RECORD WITH SCORE IN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/16) – RB Earnest Graham, who began the year as a backup running back, scores a touchdown in his sixth consecutive game to set a new team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown. Graham's touchdown is his team-leading 10th of the year as he finishes the game against Atlanta with 22 carries for 79 yards and one touchdown.

GALLOWAY POSTS THIRD CONSECUTIVE 1,000-YARD SEASON (12/23) – With a 29-yard reception in the second quarter at San Francisco, WR Joey Galloway becomes the first player in team history to record three consecutive and three overall 1,000-yard receiving seasons while also marking the first time in his 13-year career Galloway accomplished the feat. It goes down as the sixth 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

BROOKS BECOMES TEAM'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, STARTS (1/6) – With his start in the NFC Wild Card matchup against the New York Giants, LB Derrick Brooks becomes the Bucs all-time leader in playoff games played (11) and started (11). Brooks, who already holds the franchise record for most career regular season games and starts, surpasses former teammates FB Mike Alstott and LB Shelton Quarles, who each played in 10 career postseason contests.

ALSTOTT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT (1/24) – Arguably the most popular player in team history, FB Mike Alstott retires after a 12-year career. A second-round selection (35th overall) in the 1996 draft, Alstott ends his career as the club record holder in touchdowns (71), rushing touchdowns (58) and Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive player (six). His 432 points ranks third in Buccaneer history and he is the only non-kicker in club annals to surpass the 400-point plateau. During his career, Alstott amassed 1,359 rushing attempts for 5,088 yards (both second in team history) and caught 305 passes (third in team history) for 2,284 yards. Alstott played in 158 career regular season games as a Buccaneer, seventh-most in team history, with 137 starts, fifth-most in team history, and 10 playoff games (tied for second in team history) with seven starts, including starting at fullback in the Buccaneers' 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

GARCIA EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (1/24) – QB Jeff Garcia is added to the NFC squad for the 2008 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection in the annual all-star event for the Buccaneers. Garcia, the NFC's first alternate at quarterback, replaces Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre. His appearance is the fourth of his career and first as a Buccaneer. It marks just the third time in Buccaneers history that a quarterback has been named to the Pro Bowl, joining Trent Dilfer (1997) and Brad Johnson (2002). Garcia finished the season as the NFL's seventh-rated passer (94.6) and ranked second in the league with a team-record 1.2 interception percentage.

BUCS SELECT AQIB TALIB IN NFL DRAFT (4/26) – The Buccaneers select Kansas CB Aqib Talib with their first selection (20th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft. Talib becomes the highest cornerback ever selected by Tampa Bay and just the second defensive back the Buccaneers have ever drafted in the first round.

ROOKIE SMITH SETS TEAM RETURN RECORD (11/2) – Buccaneers rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith sets a franchise record for the most return yards by an individual in a single game. Smith racks up 259 total return yards at Kansas City, including a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He becomes only the second player in team history to return a kickoff for a touchdown and the only player in team history to return a kickoff and punt for a touchdown as a Buccaneer.

GRUDEN BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH (11/2) – With the Buccaneers 30-27 overtime victory at Kansas City, Jon Gruden becomes the all-time winningest coach in Buccaneers history. The victory is his 57th career win as Buccaneers head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy for the most wins ever in franchise history.

FOUR BUCCANEERS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/16) – LB Derrick Brooks and rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith are selected to the NFL's annual all-star game in Hawaii. It marks Brooks' 11th selection, tops in team history and tied for second in NFL history for most Pro Bowl selections by a linebacker. Despite serving on the Buccaneers practice squad until Week 8 of the season, the undrafted Smith becomes the first kick returner in franchise history to be selected to the Pro Bowl and just the second rookie in team history, joining RB Warrick Dunn in 1997. In addition, Smith is only the third undrafted rookie free agent since 1970 to make the Pro Bowl. Named first alternates, CB Ronde Barber and G Davin Joseph, are later added to the Pro Bowl roster to round out the Buccaneers selections. It marks Barber's fifth career selection, moving him into a tie for fifth place in team history. Joseph's selection is the first of his career and marks the first time a Buccaneers offensive lineman is selected since 2000.

ANTONIO BRYANT NAMED COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/15) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, WR Antonio Bryant is named the 2008 Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News. Bryant finishes the season setting career highs and leading the team with 83 receptions for 1,248 yards and seven touchdowns.

BUCCANEERS DISMISS GRUDEN, ALLEN (1/16) – The Buccaneers dismiss head coach Jon Gruden and general manager Bruce Allen. Gruden coached the Buccaneers for seven seasons, compiling a 57-55 record during the regular season and 3-2 in the playoffs. Gruden led the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII and three NFC South Division titles. He leaves as the Buccaneers all-time winningest coach.

MORRIS AND DOMINIK INTRODUCED AS HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER (1/17) – The Buccaneers announce Raheem Morris as head coach and Mark Dominik as general manager in a press conference at One Buccaneer Place. Morris, who spent six of the previous seven seasons as a defensive assistant with the Buccaneers, is the youngest head coach in the NFL at the time of his hiring and the eighth head coach in team history. Dominik is the fourth general manager in club history after spending the previous 14 seasons in the Buccaneers personnel department in various capacities.

QB JOSH FREEMAN DRAFTED IN THE FIRST ROUND (4/25) – The Buccaneers select Kansas State QB Josh Freeman with their first selection (17th overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft. Freeman becomes the highest quarterback selected by Tampa Bay in the first round since Trent Dilfer was drafted sixth overall in the 1994 NFL Draft.

TALIB TIES FRANCHISE RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (10/4) – CB Aqib Talib picks off QB Jason Campbell three times at Washington to tie CB Ronde Barber's club record, which he accomplished twice. Talib finishes the season with five interceptions to tie for the team lead and establish a career high.

BUCS PARTICIPATE IN NFL INTERNATIONAL SERIES (10/25) – In just their second international appearance, and first during the regular season, Tampa Bay falls to the New England Patriots by a score of 35-7 as part of the NFL's International Series in London. A raucous crowd of 84,254, the largest to watch the Bucs all season, fill historic Wembley Stadium to take in the game.

BUCCANEERS WEAR THROWBACK UNIFORMS, SELMON ENTERS RING OF HONOR (11/8) – For the first time, Tampa Bay wears its 1976 Florida orange throwback uniforms in a comeback victory over the Packers. At halftime, Buccaneer legend and Pro Football Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first inductee into the team's Ring of Honor as the organization also recognizes the Buccaneers 1979 playoff team with several members of the team in attendance.

MORRIS, FREEMAN EARN FIRST VICTORY IN COMEBACK WIN OVER GREEN BAY (11/8) – Making his first career start, QB Josh Freeman rallies the Buccaneers from an 11-point, fourth-quarter deficit against the Packers to give Head Coach Raheem Morris his first career victory. Freeman becomes the second youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970. Defensively, Tampa Bay records six sacks and three interceptions in a game for the first time since 1990.

WINSLOW SETS NEW SINGLE-SEASON CATCH MARK BY A TIGHT END (12/20) – TE Kellen Winslow records six receptions for 93 yards in a comeback win at Seattle to surpass TE Jackie Harris for most receptions in a single season by a tight end in team history. Harris registered 62 receptions in 1995 before Winslow established the new record, finishing the 2009 season with 77 catches.

BUCS SHOCK SAINTS IN NEW ORLEANS (12/27) – Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter at New Orleans, Tampa Bay scores 20 unanswered points against the eventual Super Bowl champions to win in overtime on K Connor Barth's 47-yard field goal. The 17-point comeback ties for the second-largest comeback in team history and it also marks the first time in NFL history that a team that was 10 or more games below .500 defeated a team that was 10 or more games above .500. The defense limits New Orleans to 17 points, tied for the fewest by the Saints in a single game on the season.

WINSLOW SURPASSES GILES FOR MOST RECEIVING YARDS BY A TIGHT END (12/27) – With his team-high 76 receiving yards at New Orleans, TE Kellen Winslow moves past TE Jimmie Giles (786 in 1981) for the most receiving yards for a tight end in a single season in team history. Winslow finishes the season with 884 receiving yards.

FREEMAN ESTABLISHES NEW ROOKIE RECORD FOR SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDS (12/27) – Rookie QB Josh Freeman throws for 271 yards in the comeback win against the Saints, moving him past QB Bruce Gradkowski (1,661 passing yards in 2006) for most passing yards in a single season by a rookie in team history. Freeman goes on to throw for 1,855 yards on the season.

FREEMAN SETS ROOKIE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN A SEASON (1/3) – QB Josh Freeman throws his 10th touchdown pass of the season in the season finale against Atlanta to establish a new rookie record for most touchdown passes in a single season, surpassing QB Bruce Gradkowski, who had nine touchdown passes in 2006.

BARBER STARTS IN RECORD 172ND CONSECUTIVE GAME (10/17) – CB Ronde Barber makes his 172nd consecutive start against New Orleans, surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.

BARBER RECORDS 40TH CAREER INTERCEPTION (11/21) – CB Ronde Barber picks off QB Troy Smith for his 40th career interception in a shutout victory at San Francisco to become the first player in NFL history to record 25+ sacks and 40+ interceptions in their career. Barber's 40 career interceptions are also tops in franchise history.

BUCCANEERS POST SHUTOUT IN SAN FRANCISCO (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the 49ers 21-0 to become the first team to shut out the 49ers in San Francisco since 1977. It also marks the Buccaneers' first shutout since December 5, 2004 against the Atlanta Falcons.

FREEMAN THROWS FIVE TOUCHDOWN PASSES (12/26) – In a 38-15 win against Seattle, QB Josh Freeman throws a career-high five touchdowns with no interceptions to become the youngest quarterback (22) to accomplish the feat since Dan Marino (22) on September 2, 1984.

BLOUNT SURPASSES 1,000-YARDS RUSHING (1/2) – RB LeGarrette Blount rushes for 66 yards in the season finale to finish his rookie campaign with 1,007 rushing yards, becoming just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards in a single season, despite just starting in seven games on the season. He also becomes just the third rookie running back in team history to finish with over 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

FREEMAN RANKS IN THE TOP 10 ALL TIME IN TD/INT RATIO (1/2) – QB Josh Freeman finishes the season with a 25/6 touchdown-interception ratio to rank as the ninth-best ratio in NFL history among quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in a season. He also becomes just the second quarterback in NFL history under the age of 23 to throw six-or-fewer interceptions in a season with 200+ attempts (Dan Marino – 1983).

BLOUNT AND WILLIAMS LEAD ALL ROOKIES IN RUSHING AND RECEIVING (1/2) – Tampa Bay becomes the first team in NFL history to have two different players, RB LeGarrette Blount and WR Mike Williams, lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards since 1968 (Cincinnati). Blount's 1,007 rushing yards and Williams' 964 receiving yards also lead the Buccaneers on the season.

WILLIAMS SETS NEW TEAM RECORD FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/2) – With his 18-yard touchdown reception in the season finale, rookie WR Mike Williams finishes the season with 11 receiving touchdowns to set a new franchise record for most receiving touchdowns in a season. His 11 touchdown receptions also lead all NFL rookies.

BUCS FINISH WITH 10 WINS, DESPITE STARTING 10 ROOKIES (1/2) – With a 10-6 final record, the Buccaneers become the first team since the merger (1970) to start 10+ different rookies in a single season and finish with a winning record.

10 WINS MARKS BEST SINGLE-SEASON TURNAROUND (1/2) – The Buccaneers' 10th win in the season finale against New Orleans, preceded by a 3-13 season in 2009, represents the best single-season turnaround in team history with a seven-game improvement. It also marks the biggest turnaround in the NFL in 2010.

BUCS MATCH FRANCHISE-BEST ROAD RECORD (1/2) – The Buccaneers finish the 2010 season with a 6-2 road record, matching the franchise's all-time best road record established during the Buccaneers championship season in 2002.

PENN ADDED TO PRO BOWL ROSTER (1/24) – T Donald Penn is added to the NFC squad for the 2011 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection for the Buccaneers in the annual all-star event. Penn, the NFC's second alternate at tackle, replaces Green Bay Packers T Chad Clifton. His appearance is the first of his career and it marks the first time in Buccaneers history that an offensive tackle has been named to the Pro Bowl.

Following the 2010 season, T Donald Penn was selected to his first career Pro Bowl. Penn, in his fifth-year, started all 16 games during the season and served as the anchor for the Tampa Bay offensive line, which had to overcome several key injuries and featured eight different starting lineups. With his selection, it marked the first time in franchise history that Tampa Bay has sent a tackle to the Pro Bowl.

Penn, who has recorded 60 consecutive starts for the seventh-longest streak among active tackles in the NFL, played collegiately at Utah State and originally entered the league as an undrafted free agent with Minnesota in 2006.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEER PLAYOFF HISTORY

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
DECEMBER 29, 1979
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0
JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A. territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charlie Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However,

QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

1981 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0 JANUARY 2, 1982 TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17 JANUARY 9, 1983 TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dexter Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Coney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10
DECEMBER 28, 1997
HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies—RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards—the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7 JANUARY 4, 1998 LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

1999 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21, TAMPA BAY 3
DECEMBER 31, 2000
VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

PHILADELPHIA 31, TAMPA BAY 9 JANUARY 12, 2002 VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added 57 yards rushing.

2002 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6 JANUARY 12, 2003 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA — Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defended, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team postseason history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

TAMPA BAY 48, OAKLAND 21
QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at age 39 to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. 5 Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near mid-field with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

2007 NFC WILD CARD GAME

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL RING

the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48-21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a seagoing pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

In the long-established tradition of creating custom awards for the world of sports, Tiffany & Co. designed the Super Bowl championship rings presented to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, winners of Super Bowl XXXVII.

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side,

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

RING OF HONOR

JOHN MCKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001 from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. With his passing, the Buccaneer family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneer history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (the former Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: sons John and Rich and daughters Michele and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

MCKAY

LEE ROY SELMON

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. He also became the first inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor on November 8, 2009. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the most outstanding player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneers franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career fumbles caused (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon took on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. Selmon, who held that spot until 2004, was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters, including Dewey, who played for the Bucs from 1976-80, and Lucious, who served as the linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JIMMIE GILES

On December 4, 2011 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers, Giles will become the third inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor and the first on the offensive side of the ball.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985 while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game, also making trips to Hawaii following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in that exclusive club in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985 and to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the all-star game more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdowns during his time in Buccaneer orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to rank highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdowns receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL' by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay

Buccaneers of the National Football League, the University of South Florida football team and college football's Outback Bowl.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/President Malcolm Glazer. Buccaneers Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2011 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

AMENITIES AT RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

GENERAL SEATING: After 22 years of watching Buccaneers football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19"-21" wide and with 32"-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds more than 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 600 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

CLUB SEATS: Raymond James Stadium also has over 10,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneers games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

LUXURY SUITES: A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneers game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

CONCESSIONS: Raymond James Stadium has over 550 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 126 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

RESTROOMS/SERVICES: Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 88 restroom locations and a total of 1,073 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneers fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

MEDIA FACILITIES: The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. The dining area features a multiple-screen video wall, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

ESCALATORS: An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of three escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneers fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

TRAFFIC CONTROL: Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers is directed to ease traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 16 cameras constantly monitored by staff from TPD and City Traffic Engineering. They monitor all major intersections, traffic light cycles and newly installed cameras by F.D.O.T. that reach out beyond the immediate area. If problems arise, the flow of traffic can be instantly adjusted by adding time to stop lights or lane closures to avoid accidents.

SIDELINES

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million extravaganza called Buccaneer Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s Pirate Ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew on game day who is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length 103'
- Ship Weight 43 tons
- Ship Height 78'
- Bow Detail 9'x7'
- Ship Width 32'
- Swords 16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

MILLER LITE PARTY DECK

The Miller Lite Party Deck is an exclusive area in the south end zone where a select number of fans can watch the game from an awesome view. Fans are eligible to win a ticket to this private oasis where guests may enjoy complimentary Miller products on the deck. Winners receive a ticket and special pass to access the deck and Buc Dollars for stadium goods. All winners must be 21 and older.

BUCVISION

BucVision features two massive videoboards at each end of Raymond James Stadium.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboards, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to simultaneous highlights from up to six games from around the NFL, both before Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

BucVision is operated by more than 30 technicians. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates six in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

THE BEST IN THE NFL

Since opening in 1998, Raymond James Stadium has drawn rave reviews as one of the best playing surfaces in the National Football League. Tampa Bay's home stadium has ranked as the top turf in the League in five of the previous seven surveys, earning top honors in 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004 and 2006. In 2008 and 2010, Raymond James Stadium was rated as having the second-best natural grass field. For the 2010 survey, the NFL Players Association polled 1,619 active players from all 32 teams. Prior to 1998, the Buccaneers ranked first in both the 1994 and 1996 surveys for having the best playing surface in the League at Tampa Stadium.

GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

In addition to Buccaneer Cove and BucVision, Raymond James Stadium offers numerous attractions to fans that make the Buccaneers gameday experience unlike any other in professional sports. Some of the attractions include:

- PRE-GAME BANDS – Eight bands perform for two hours prior to every game.
- ANIMATED PARROT – A "talking parrot" located on the aft of the Pirate Ship entertains fans prior to the game.
- PRE-GAME CEREMONY – During the National Anthem, a 125-person crew unfurls the largest United States flag among NFL team's across the playing field.
- FACE-PAINTING PIRATES – Face-painting pirates stroll the club level through the end of the first-quarter.
- BUCCANEER BATTLE FLAGS – Each time the Buccaneers offense advances into the opposition's red zone, red flags that adorn the top of the stadium are raised while a 60-person crew waves red flags throughout the stadium as the Pirate Ship's cannons are fired.
- LIVE TV FEEDS – Over 1,300 HD TVs throughout the stadium including four 18x10 feet HD Video Walls.

ONE BUCCANEER PLACE

The Buccaneers' headquarters, a 136,320-square-foot complex with every conceivable advancement related to the game of football, is an NFL landmark. Every player, coach and staff member who left the team's old and outdated facility became better equipped to do their jobs the moment they walked through the front door of the new place.

The main building's entrance, wrought in steel and glass and backlit at night in red, is visually stunning but it is also plainly symbolic. Simply put, everything that goes on through those doors is dedicated to one overriding pursuit.

Football.

The Buccaneers' facility opened for business in August 2006, just in time for the team's return from training camp. By the end of September, the entire organization had moved over from the former One Buccaneer Place, which had been its home since 1976. There are three full-sized practice fields out back; a 9,353-square-foot weight room in a separate building; a sprawling training area with the most modern tools for the team's medical staff; a 2,400-square-foot team auditorium fronted by an enormous video screen; a video control room that looks like the bridge of a spaceship; dozens of wired meeting rooms; a dedicated draft room, spacious coaches offices; a fully-contained kitchen and dining area; a locker room more than double the size of its predecessor and much, much more. The new One Buccaneer Place also houses all of the front office departments, including human resources, ticket sales, customer service, public relations, information technology, community relations and marketing.

One Buccaneer Place is the complete facility that the Buccaneers need to pursue their ultimate goal of Super Bowl championships.

ROOM TO BREATHE: THE LOCKER ROOM AND PLAYERS LOUNGE

The locker room at One Buccaneer Place covers 6,600 square feet – more than twice the size of the one it replaced – and looks even more spacious thanks to the vaulted ceilings, subtle lighting and lack of clutter in the middle. The locker room at the former facility needed two rows of back-to-back lockers in the middle of the floor to get every player into one, and those rows removed any hope of clear sight lines or walking paths.

Oak paneling accents are everywhere, lending a luxurious but comfortable feel to the room. The carpet, in turn, returns the focus to the team; it is dominated in the middle by a huge version of the team's logo, measuring about 40 feet from one tip diagonally to the other.

The most noticeable feature of the room is its depth. One can walk in from the east end of the locker room, across the hall from an equally spacious equipment room, and feel like you're a Josh Freeman bomb away from the west end.

The lockers themselves are four feet across, wood-paneled, and have enough drawers, shelves and hooks to store any equipment a player might need, including a compartment at the bottom that neatly fits an ergonomic folding chair. Each locker is wired for power so that players can charge electronic equipment or play music.

Each locker is also equipped with a ventilation system and two large vents, one behind the low shelf where shoes are stored and one behind the top shelf where shoulder pads are kept. In addition to keeping the lockers smelling fresh, these vents also allow the players' shoes and pads to dry quickly.

The locker rooms are supported by a much improved shower and restroom area, as well.

At the former One Buc Place, up to 90 players often had to share four urinals, four toilets, four sinks and about five working showerheads. The current locker room has eight urinals, seven toilets, 14 sinks and 24 showerheads, all in perfect working order and all utilizing automatic sensors to cut down on wasted resources. Around the four walls of the beautifully-tiled shower room, there are also 12 mounted dispensers of shampoo and shower gel. The showerheads are equipped with high-pressure, adjustable nozzles.

Rows of sinks are set in black marble in front of long mirrors and sitting between the shower and the sinks are both a tiled steam room and a wood-paneled sauna.

Gone, too, are the days when players had to eat, play dominoes or read the newspaper at their lockers. Walk through the south doors of the locker room and down a short hall and you're in the Players' Lounge.

The lounge sits on the back edge of the building, facing the practice field with 27 windows stretching up to its high, vaulted ceiling. The room seating consists of two black leather couches and 14 black leather chairs, several of them facing the gigantic entertainment center along the east wall. The entertainment center is fitted with five flat screen TVs. It also houses a sophisticated sound system, which is hooked up to speakers around the room.

For players to relax, the lounge is equipped with two customized Buccaneers pool tables, a bank of free-standing video games, several video arcade machines and tables at which to play cards or other games.

WIRED FOR EFFICIENCY: THE VIDEO EDITING SUITE

Everything in the Buccaneers' video department, located on the second floor of the team's facility, is wired for ease and efficiency. Every likely request by a coach or player has been planned for in advance.

In the main video area, which is raised a foot or so from the rest of the second floor to allow for intricate cabling under the floor, a long, three-sided deck of editing machines forms the central control area. Here, five editing stations allow for the rapid cut-up of game and practice footage. Every play in practice or a game is categorized and entered into the system, where it is instantly available to coaches and players all across the building.

There is a separate room for storage of current practice and game footage, as well as the department's servers. There is also another separate room, located just across the hall, that is used for storage of tapes from many years past.

Off the main video floor is a fourth room, about the same size and shape as the department's lone room back at the old One Buccaneer Place. At the current facility, this room of that size is used solely for the purpose of such side projects as printing labels, repairing equipment and stripping cable.

At the former One Buc, all these activities went on inside that little rectangle, wherever a piece of real estate could be found.

A PLACE OF HEALING: THE TRAINING ROOM

Todd Toriscelli, the Bucs' director of sports medicine and performance and head trainer since 1997, is an experienced veteran in his field, and insists that the team's medical area stay current with any advances.

The training room includes a large physician's room, allowing the team's attending physician the ability to see a player privately. There were no such provisions in the old One Buc Place.

The physician's room is off to the right of Toriscelli's office, next to the expansive rehab area, which looks like a slightly miniaturized version of the facility's impressive weight room. That, too, is something completely new for the training staff. At the old One Buccaneer Place, the rehab area was also known as "the weight room." Now, says Toriscelli, the medical staff is completely self-contained in terms of the equipment it needs to return injured players to health.

Players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room. The team has gone from three metal tubs to three large pools – one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill.

The hydro room is to the left of Toriscelli's office, past additional large offices for his assistants. In the middle of all of this is the main training area, with a dozen large taping tables and all manner of related equipment.

A REAL STRENGTH: THE WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at the Bucs' headquarters happens to be its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway. The very first time it opened its doors for an official team workout, two-thirds of the team was waiting to use it. That would not have been remotely possible at the old headquarters.

There are 60-70 different types of machines, about 30 of which are completely new to the Bucs' inventory, and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

In the past, as the Bucs have moved from one coaching staff to another and one strength and conditioning leader to another, the weight room's overriding philosophy has changed. One strength and conditioning coach might favor free weights over machines and stock only those; the next coach might believe in the opposite and clear out the weights to make room for new machines.

The Bucs' current program, under Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Kurtis Shultz, doesn't believe in limiting its scope to any one philosophy. Tampa Bay players have access to weights and machines, and to coaches who are eager to devise specific regimens that will work for specific individuals.

The team also wants to encourage strength training by giving the weight room a very inviting atmosphere. As such, it has been fitted with an impressive sound system, a must in any workout area. Also, the wall that faces the field is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and uplifting.

AT YOUR FINGERTIPS: STATE-OF-THE-ART MEETING ROOMS

The NFL is a fully-wired world these days, and that concept is executed to perfection by the state-of-the-art technology that traces through the Buccaneers' headquarters like a nerve system.

That is certainly true in the player meeting rooms, which occupy a good portion of the ground floor, stretching around two sides of the locker room. Coaches and players have gone from cramped, multi-purpose rooms with outdated equipment to spacious, position-specific areas outfitted with an incredibly efficient system for the sharing of information.

It starts in the back of each room, where a desk system called the XOS Coach's Command Station is situated. It might be the most aptly-named piece of equipment in the building, because it looks as if it was lifted right from the bridge of a science fiction spaceship. It doesn't have force fields or phasers, but it does allow a coach to run his meeting at warp speed.

The Coach's Command Station is fitted with five possible methods of output: a Betacam deck, a document camera, a DVD/VCR combo deck, an DVSPORT PC link and a guest PC hookup. Seated behind his curved and compact desk, the coach controls all of these possibilities with a single remote and can flick quickly from one to the next. Whatever he chooses to share with his players is instantly displayed on a huge screen at the front of the room.

On the right side of the desk is a gray console with a small screen showing his touch options. The universal remote, set up in a way familiar to the coaches from the systems they've worked on for years, is also on the right. With these two devices, a coach can quickly take his players through any splice of footage he needs them to see, from practices, Bucs games or opponents' games.

The system already includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Dave Levy's crew. Every practice is shot by several video workers on lifts located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

Sometimes, too, a coach wishes to draw up a few Xs and Os. For generations, that's been done on a blackboard or a greaseboard. Now, with a flick of a switch, a coach can whip up any diagram while seated at his command station and share it instantly with his players.

That's possible through the aforementioned document camera, which looks like a futuristic cross between a desk lamp and a telephone. The lead arm of the doc cam is aimed down at the coach's desk, and anything slid underneath it is projected with extreme clarity on the same huge screen used to watch cutups.

Every coach also has his own spacious office on the second floor, where he can access the same cut-up footage and assemble reels of whatever subject he wishes. Those reels can then be accessed virtually anywhere in the football side of the building.

One Buccaneer Place consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a state-of-the-art media studio for press conferences, which includes a podium that can be adjusted to the height of any speaker.

What is One Buc's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defended, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defended against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM'S NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for some public figure or local sports legend, but rather a thriving diversified financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial.

The company has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and will continue as the named sponsor through at least 2015. Raymond James is the official investment services and financial planning provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The firm's name actually comes from the 1962 merger of two financial service companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a full understanding of each client's situation and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James is a multinational company with distinct business units that serve a variety of clients, from individuals and small business owners to municipalities and major corporations.

RAYMOND JAMES & THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS TEAM UP TO HELP OTHERS

Raymond James Financial believes in giving back to the communities in which its associates live and work. A leader in this regard, Raymond James has been recognized for its philanthropy and community support by such organizations as the National Business Committee for the Arts and the United Way of Tampa Bay.

The company is also actively involved with other charitable organizations, with specific focus on education and the arts. In addition, Raymond James associates are generous with their funds, time and leadership. Many are involved in organizations across the country, from civic clubs and schools to chambers of commerce and social service organizations.

During the football season, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up for two charitable programs: Kicking for Kids and Sack Hunger.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 12th year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children in NFL cities around the country through the Kicking for Kids program.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes funds to a children's hospital in the city where the kick is made.

Since its inception, the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program has raised more than $204,000 for children's hospitals in U.S. cities where the Buccaneers have played as of January 2011.

SACK HUNGER

Since the 2000 season, Raymond James and the Glazer Family Foundation have worked to “sack hunger” by stocking Tampa Bay-area food banks before the Thanksgiving holiday. This effort has collected more than 117.5 tons of nonperishable food items along with funding to provide approximately 227,430 meals for families through special drives and game-day collections at the stadium.

This year's annual Sack Hunger game-day food drive will be held on November 13, 2011, prior to the Buccaneers vs. Houston Texans game. Visit sackhunger.com to learn more.

THE TOM AND MARY JAMES/RAYMOND JAMES FINANCIAL ART COLLECTION

A deep appreciation for the arts permeates Raymond James' culture and is reflected at the firm's corporate headquarters, where more than 1,800 works of art are on display as part of the Tom and Mary James/Raymond James Financial Art Collection.

A virtual tour of some of the collection is available at raymondjames.com. Tours of the art displayed at the Raymond James international headquarters can also be arranged.

In addition to sponsoring several art shows each year, such as the renowned Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, the firm is also a major supporter of the Florida Orchestra, Dali Museum, Morean Arts Center's Chihuly Collection and the American Stage Theatre Company.

Raymond James is also a continuing sponsor of the American Stage Theatre Company and its theater in downtown St. Petersburg – the Raymond James Theatre. The company hopes its actions will help encourage others – corporations and individuals – to support not only live theater, but all forms of artistic expression.

BUCCANEERS PRESEASON TELEVISION

CHRIS MYERS

JOHN LYNCH

DAVE WIRTH

WTSP

It's time for Bucs football – and WTSP, 10 News is proud to be Tampa Bay's home for pre-season games for the next two years. This season, 10 News is producing the final three preseason games in stunning High Definition. Home games against the New England Patriots and Miami Dolphins as well as a road contest against the Washington Redskins, highlight WTSP's top-flight coverage.

Buccaneer fans with High Definition television sets can tune to WTSP-DT Channel 10.1 to see all the action in wide screen with lifelike clarity. Cable subscribers are advised to check local listings for HD service detail. Standard Definition viewers will also benefit with higher resolution video and improved audio.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his eighth season in the broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man during the preseason. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with a number of programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers, who was born in Florida, began his career at age 16 in Miami when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Former Buccaneer great John Lynch will join Chris Myers in the broadcast booth during the preseason for the third year. One of the most respected players in team history, Lynch retired in 2008 after 15 years in the NFL. After enjoying his first season in the broadcast booth in 2009, Lynch will be returning as an analyst on The NFL on Fox for regular season games in 2011.

A nine-time Pro Bowler, Lynch entered the league as a third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1993 NFL Draft. He spent his first 11 seasons with the Buccaneers before joining the Denver Broncos for four seasons. Lynch played in 224 career games with 191 starts during his career, finishing his career with 1,277 tackles, 26 interceptions, 13 sacks, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 100 passes defended.

A captain on the Buccaneers Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch still ranks fifth in games played, sixth in games started, fifth in tackles and sixth in interceptions in Buccaneer history.

Dave Wirth, who serves as WTSP's main sports anchor will be the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. He has been covering Tampa Bay sports for more than 25 years, including reporting on major stories such as the Bucs winning Super Bowl XXXVII and the Lightning winning the Stanley Cup in 2004. In addition to sports anchoring for 10 News, Dave hosted the Devil Rays Magazine on SportsChannel Florida, and Fox Sports Net Florida, from the Rays inception in 1996 until 2002. He also hosted the pre-game show, on the Rays first minor-league game, and served as a panelist on the popular Sunday Morning Pro Football Show, on SportsChannel Florida.

Dave Wirth was also play by play announcer and color analyst for USF Basketball on SportsChannel Florida, and Fox Sports Net Florida, and was a play-by-play announcer and color analyst, for selected USF Baseball and woman's basketball games on SportsChannel Florida.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

GENE DECKERHOFF

DAVE MOORE

T.J. RIVES

In its eighth year, Clear Channel's US 103.5 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. US 103.5 will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. Clear Channel will also simulcast Buccaneers football on its sister station, 620 WDAE-AM.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 23rd straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 23 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball since 1979.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 11-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his fifth season as color analyst with the Buccaneers Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

T.J. Rives begins his seventh season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives is a radio and television veteran of the Tampa Bay area and nationally for the last 19 years. During the 2011 season, Rives will host the Raheem Morris Radio Show on Monday nights. He graduated with a degree in broadcasting from the former Memphis State University.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action and all of the attending pre-game, halftime and post-game action are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

Since its launch in 1999, Buccaneers.com has emerged as the definitive source for information, entertainment, video, photography, game coverage and locker-room access regarding the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In May 2010, the Buccaneers teamed with the NFL to launch a new fully integrated and interactive website which allows the team to also have access to NFL Network content. The site continues to be on the cutting-edge of internet sports coverage and provides fans direct access to the site's most popular features.

Buccaneers.com remains the only source of up-to-the-minute information for Buccaneers fans.

MEDIA TOOLS

- Constantly updated and easy to download rosters, depth charts, weekly releases, statistics pages and other informational files
- Always up-to-date press release archives
- Credential information and other team media policies

NEWS SOURCE

- Official source for news on team transactions, such as player signings, roster cuts and depth chart changes
- Always up-to-date roster, depth chart and transactions page
- Feature articles on relevant players and subjects

MULTIMEDIA CENTER

- Podcasts of weekly radio shows, press conferences and other events made available shortly after their conclusion
- Live coverage of all postgame and day-after-game press conferences by head coach, in addition to other selected press conferences
- Frequent video and audio interviews in the Buccaneers Multimedia Network, complete with deep archive spanning several seasons
- Weekly game highlights produced by NFL Films
- NFL Network coverage of the Buccaneers
- Fan-interactive interviews and other elements
- Deepest on-line image archive in the league, easily sorted by player or game

GAME COVERAGE

- Pregame news, including injury updates, lineup information, inactives and thoughts from the head coach
- In-game updates, including play-by-play, quarterly stats and game-story updates at the end of each period
- Game photos transmitted directly from Buccaneers' sideline
- Up-to-the-minute injury and lineup information
- Wrap up story posted immediately after the game

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Cheerleader section featuring photos, bios and diary entries
- Ticket and seating information
- Detailed stadium information, featuring seating diagrams, parking maps and concession locations
- Most active fan message board in the NFL, fan polls, topic discussions
- Community relations updates
- Kids Zone
- Team Store

CHEERLEADERS

Since 1976 the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have charmed the team's avid fans, performed to worldwide acclaim, and cheered the team to a Super Bowl Championship.

The 28 to 34 women that comprise the squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year to represent the team and include athletes, educators, professionals, students and mothers. These talented women are committed both to the team and the community, making a large number of appearances for both corporate and non-profit events throughout their term.

In addition to their work within the Tampa Bay Area, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders also serve as ambassadors for the organization throughout the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Canada, Egypt, Japan, Europe, Australia, California, Texas and Hawaii.

CATHERINE BOYD

CHEERLEADING/MASCOT MANAGER

Catherine Boyd enters her ninth season overall with the Buccaneers Cheerleaders. Her first five seasons with the team were as a performing member of the squad. During this tenure, she was team captain, the 2003 Pro Bowl representative and a Talent Troupe member, which allowed her to travel the world as an ambassador of the NFL. In 2008, Boyd was hired as Cheerleading Assistant and was promoted to Cheerleading/Mascot Manager in 2010.

Boyd handles the squad's day-to-day operations as well as auditions, rehearsals and preparation of the pre-game and sideline dance routines. In addition, she oversees the team's mascot, Captain Fear, and the Pewter Pirates, a Crewe that invades the Buccaneers' end zone each time the team scores a touchdown.

Boyd has over twenty years of dance experience and holds a Bachelor of Communications Sciences and Disorders from The University of South Florida. She resides in Tampa with her husband, Nate.

CHEERLEADING COORDINATOR

Melissa Valdez Fitzgerald is currently entering her fourth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and her second as Cheerleading Coordinator. She has over 30 years of dance training and has been involved with professional cheerleading for 17 years.

Valdez Fitzgerald was a member of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders for six seasons as a cheerleader, team captain, show group member and member of the All-Star team. She was also selected as a Pro Bowl Cheerleader and DCC Veteran of the Year in 2002 and cheered for two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers Gold Rush, later being offered an assistant director's position in 2005.

Working with e2k Sports in San Francisco, Valdez Fitzgerald helped produce multiple events including the 2005 United Way Thanksgiving Halftime Show, 2006 NFL Pro Bowl and all San Francisco 49ers game days. Recently, she worked as the 2010 Pro Bowl Cheerleader Coordinator with the Miami Dolphins.

MEDIA POLICIES AND GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department at (813) 554-1311. Phone interviews should be arranged in advance and are subject to availability. Head Coach Raheem Morris will address the media directly after practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team's media. Morris' scheduled day-after-game press conference during the regular season will be at noon.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers' locker room is open for accredited media each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Times for the open locker room session are available by contacting the PR department. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays.

Practice Regulations: Times for the team's weekly practices are available by calling the Buccaneers' PR department. All practices are closed to the media. Media, still photographers and videographers may attend approximately the first 30 minutes of practice.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' PR department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a freelance basis unless the request is made by an approved publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted via the Buccaneers' media site at <http://media.buccaneers.com>. Contact Kelly Schutz with any questions regarding credentials.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release, including updated statistics, player bios, etc., may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the media site. The team's weekly injury report can be found in the same locations.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. The media will call is staffed beginning four hours prior to kickoff. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Sandra Jones of CenturyLink (800-471-1139) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline.

NOTE: Unless previously arranged, no interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.

In 2010, the Foundation helped create a new way for children to become lifelong learners and leaders: the Glazer Children's Museum.

The Glazer Children's Museum opened on September 25, 2010 along the waterfront in downtown Tampa. The 53,000 square-foot building is not just a museum, but a place with activities, games and challenges that allows children to learn in an exciting, stimulating environment. The world-class facility will host millions of children to learn about themselves, each other and the world around them through exploration and discovery.

A combination of permanent and traveling exhibits, comprehensive year-round programs and special events provide children, parents, caregivers and teachers with a rich and ever-changing atmosphere for playful learning. Kids can enjoy more than 170 unique, interactive exhibits called 'Interactivities' throughout 12 differently-themed areas committed to education and imagination. Children can pretend to be airplane pilots, cruise ship captains, construction workers, fire fighters, doctors and more in a safe, engaging environment.

Having established impactful partnerships with schools, nonprofit organizations and civic leaders, the Glazer Children's Museum serves as an invaluable resource to the community. A main attraction in downtown Tampa and a destination for local residents, regional visitors and tourists, the Museum is in a class all its own. For hours of operation, directions and more information, visit www.GlazerMuseum.org.
